A WORTHY CANDIDATE.

The loyal voters of the Commonwealth ask no higher tribute to the worth and character of Judge Williams than the following neat compliment paid him by the only daily Democratic paper of Western Pennsylvania the day following his nomination. It said:

"The nomination of the Hon. Henry W. Williams as a candidate for Judge of the Supreme Court is a good one. He was the best man named before the Republican Convention, and possesses legal and moral qualifications for the responsible position to which he has been nominated. Both parties have now presented their candidates. An important duty has been faithfully discharged by the respective conventions. The campaign may now be conducted without personal aspersions, and decided upon the principles of the two great parties. This is as it should be. It is an auspicious sign of the times, and if the county conventions are equally fortunate in the selection of legislative candidates, there will be a stop put to the deplorable corruption at the seat of government under a new reign of honest men and conscientious legislators.—Pittsburgh Post, June 28th, 1867.

The Post, in referring to the above, on the 29th of August, was pleased to say

"We have nothing to take back or modify. Of Judge Williams' private or legal reputation we have nothing but words of praise, and however it may suit some pugnacious and heady politicians, we cannot bring ourselves to view personal assaults as either wise or politic."

* * *

THE ERIE COUNTY Republican Convention met on Monday, at Erie, and placed in nomination the following ticket: Senate, Morrow B. Lowry; Assembly, George P. Rea, J. D. Stranahan; Sheriff, Major A. J. Swann; Clerk of the Courts, Charles L. Pierce; Commissioner, W. B. Weed; Jury Commissioner, Daniel Patterson; Poor Director, John Ansen; Auditor, F. F. Stowe. Mr. Lowry, the candidate for Senate, who has already received the nomination of the Republicans of Crawford county, had a severe fight and met with decided opposition, but he came through with a majority of eight in a total vote of fifty-one. The Convention, by resolution, adopted the "Crawford county method" for the nomination of officers in the future, thus abolishing the delegate convention system. A resolution, insulting to the Erie Republican journals, was also passed, as follows:

"Resolved, That the Senator and Representatives nominated by this Convention be requested to use their best efforts to establish a true Republican paper in this county."

How far the "influence of a Senator and two Representatives" will go towards establishing and sustaining any newspaper remains to be seen. Than the Dispatch of that city, no more faithful exponent of the true principles of the party is found from one end of the Commonwealth to the other, and the cold cut was undeserving and unworthy the body by which it was administered.

* * *

THE Republicans throughout the State are awakening to the necessity of exertion for the passage by the Legislature of a Free Railroad Law. It appears that opposition to this measure contributed much towards the nomination of new men for the Senate by the late Senatorial Conference of the Twenty-first District. Inasmuch as the Senators who have recently represented that District have been conspicuous in their opposition to the measure, the following resolutions, passed by the Conference previous to nominating, have a significant ring, and assure the friends of a Free Railroad Law that the question will at least find two additional advocates in the next Senate:

Resolved, That the industrial interests of this Senatorial District demand the passage of a free Railroad Law and the regulation by law of local freights on all the railroads in the State on the pro rata per mile through basis, with a just per centage added for short distances, and in such manner as to prevent all discrimination as between individuals, or individuals and companies either in freight or passage.

Resolved, That the nominees of this Conference are hereby required to pledge themselves, if elected, to use their influence and votes to secure the passage of laws in accordance with the above resolutions.

* * *

LET the intelligent citizen calmly consider the fact that under a Republican administration of affairs, the State debt has been reduced nearly two millions of dollars during the past year. The decrease has been made by economy alone, not a single cent of tax having been levied on the real estate of the citizen to accomplish the result. A few more years of Republican administration will suffice to wipe out the entire debt of the Commonwealth, but if the Democracy again get charge of the State affairs, we may anticipate, judging from the established precedents of that party, that it will be largely increased. Let it not be forgotten at the October election that it is the settled policy of the Republican party to economize and reduce the debt which burdens the Commonwealth, and that thus far Republican Governors and officers have been successful in that direction.

THE LAWS declare that the States concerned in the revolt are not in the Union, and that they are in all essential respects subject to the military organization which has been created to supervise their reorganization. The President, directly in the face of the laws, assumes that these States are in the Union; that the civil authority is as supreme within these boundaries as it is in the other States; and that the military governments are not paramount but only auxiliary. Having assumed so much, it is not easy to see what can prevent him from assuming anything else he pleases. Recognizing no laws as valid, and giving everywhere his conceptions of what ought to be the force and effect of Statutes, there is no safeguard he is not likely to assail or overleap.

THE Supplementary Reconstruction Act, passed July 14th, 1867, prescribes that

"No person shall at any time be entitled to be registered or to vote, by reason of any Executive pardon or amnesty, for any act or thing which, without such pardon or amnesty, would disqualify him for registration or voting."

That is the plain law which the President seeks to get around.

* * *

UPON the arrival of ex-Gov. Curtin at his home in Belefonte, he was cordially welcomed by his fellow-townsmen, without distinction of party. His wife, though convalescing, is not fully restored to health. He expects to go with her shortly to Saratoga, under the expectation of perfecting a cure. His own health was never better than it is now.

* * *

WHEN PRESIDENT LINCOLN, December 8, 1863, issued his proclamation of Amnesty, he based his authority upon an Act of Congress passed July 17, 1862. He did not claim that the power of pardon granted the President by the Constitution included the power of amnesty.

FIRST EDITION.

MIDNIGHT.

THE FENIAN CONGRESS AT CLEVELAND.

Report of the Secret Proceedings.

PRESIDENT ROBERTS' MISSION TO PARIS.

Grand Strike Before Another Year.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.

CLEVELAND, O., September 10.—The Cleveland Herald, of this evening, contains an extended account of the proceedings of the Fenian Congress, which closed its week's session last night. The Congress sat with closed doors. Every part of the building was guarded with armed soldiers, and members were sworn not to divulge its proceedings, even to Circles, except as permission was given. But the Herald contrived to get all the most important facts that were omitted from the published reports. The proceedings throughout were stormy, and several times there was danger of the Congress breaking up in a general row.

OATH OF SECRECY CONSIDERED.

Considerable feeling was manifested at the proposition to swear the members to secrecy, but, after hearing instances narrated of previous bad faith, it was determined to bind every member by a stringent oath to secrecy.

WOMEN RULED OUT.

The question whether women should be admitted to Circles, was answered in the negative, because of their liability to keep a secret.

PRESIDENT ROBERTS' MISSION TO PARIS.

The message of President Roberts, occupying several columns, was given to the public, but a supplementary message, containing the account of his mission to Paris, was reserved for the private consideration of the Congress. In that document Mr. Roberts said that after visiting Circles in Great Britain and Ireland, he went to Paris, where he met the representatives of the Irish Revolutionary Brotherhood. He found the Irish people very much discouraged since the failure in Canada, and it required his best efforts to convince them that the Fenian Brotherhood, as now organized in America, were not responsible for the disaster, and to lay the blame upon the proper persons.

THE STEVENS PARTY.

These men had been sent to Europe to work for the cause, but instead of doing the work laid out for them, they had put up at the best hotels, kept fast horses, and faster women, and had squandered the money which poor hard working Irish people had freely given for the independence of Ireland.

UNION OF FENIAN BRANCHES.

He had labored until the 4th of July to effect a bond of union between the I. B. R.'s of the Old Country and F. B.'s of America, and upon that day it was accomplished, and to-day the two were one in purpose.

THE TIME FOR ANOTHER STRIKE.

He said the time and place to make a strike came up and was fully discussed by the gentlemen. Some suggested six months from the 4th of July. He told them he did not think that the two organizations would be in perfect working order so as to strike together before twelve months, and the matter was so decided.

PRACTICAL VIEW BY OLD COUNTRY IRISH.

He stated the Irish of the Old Country were warm upon the subject, and only wanted the co-operation of Irishmen on this side of the water; but that the Irish of the Old Country would never rise again until an army, fully equipped and armed, stood upon Irish soil to defend them; that it was extreme recklessness, and would lead to nothing but butchery, for them to make a strike without the aid of American Irishmen.

The organization here must be in perfect working order, and be able to make a grand strike before another year, for "hope deferred maketh the heart sick," and the Irish people of the old country were looking across the water for aid.

DENUNCIATION.

During this Paris meeting, Stevens and his party were denounced in the most severe terms, as adventurers, and they have resolved to hold no communion with them.

PLEA FOR A GRAND UNION.

Mr. Roberts read a long document from I. R. B. organization in the Old Country to the F. B. in America, pleading for a grand union and aid in the common cause, which was addressed to the Congress assembled in Cleveland. He then said he left the entire matter in the hands of Congress, hoping that they would be guided by wisdom and love of country.

REPORT OF THE SECRETARY OF WAR.

General Spear, Acting Secretary of War, reports that the whole force of the Fenian brigade numbered 9,300 enlisted men, about 15,000 rifles, 16,500 accoutrements, 1,200,000 rounds of ammunition. In addition there were one hundred rifles along the border from St. Albans to Oswego, in the hands of private parties; at Sacket's Harbor about twenty thousand stand of arms, and at Platt's Point about twelve hundred; at Oswego one hundred and nineteen rifles; in all about twenty thousand. In addition to this force Stevens' wing claimed to have fifteen thousand stand of arms, fifteen thousand sabres, large lot of ammunition, and a vessel in New York Harbor.

MILITARY ARRANGEMENTS.

It was decided that four military organizers should be appointed to raise troops, and that an Inspector General should also be appointed. Ten batteries of field artillery, three cavalry regiments of ten companies each, and two light batteries, mounted to go with cavalry, are to be organized. Casey's tactics are to be adopted. A fund to defray armory expenses is to be raised by collecting ten cents from each soldier.

ARMY OF THE IRISH REPUBLIC TO BE A MODEL ONE.

The soldiers of the Army of the Irish Republic, by which name the military organization is hereafter to be known, are to be sober and discreet men, as well as good fighting soldiers. No man addicted to intoxicating liquors is to be admitted into the ranks, and any man found drunk will be dismissed.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE STEPHENS WING—A UNION OF WINGS.

A committee from the Stephens wing of the Brotherhood sent a communication, asking that a committee be sent to confer with them on the subject of the union of the two wings. A committee was appointed, and the result of the conference was an arrangement for perfecting the union of the two factions of Fenians in America, together with the Fenians of Ireland, into one organization, to be known as the Irish Republic.

ROBERTS RE-ELECTED PRESIDENT, DECLINES, BUT CONCLUDES TO ACCEPT, ON CONDITIONS.

Col. Roberts was re-elected President, but declined, unless Congress would raise $500,000 for the cause. Half that amount was pledged, and after further consultation Col. Roberts accepted the position.

CIRCLES CALLED ON FOR FUNDS.

It was decided to call on all Circles to immediately send to headquarters what funds were in their possession, and to waste no more money for flags and trappings. Every available dollar is to be used for the purchase and refitting of arms, and the procural of ammunition. Bonds of the Irish Republic were reported to realize only twenty cents on the dollar, so that the strictest economy is necessary.

TIME FOR A "RISING" NOT FIXED.

No definite time has been fixed on for the grand movement. The Congress agreed to leave the determination of the time and the general plan of campaign to a convention of the military officers of the Irish Republic, to be held in the spring.

GEN. MEAGHER'S SERVICES DISCUSSED.

A resolution of respect for the memory of the late General Thomas Francis Meagher, created a heated discussion, there being a wide difference of opinion as to his merits, and the services he had rendered the Fenian cause. Applause and hisses greeted every repetition of his name, and the resolution was at last declared carried, amid vociferous dissent.

POLITICS AND PATRIOTISM.

A resolution was adopted by a large majority appointing a committee to draft an appeal to the United States Government in behalf of the Irish patriot prisoners confined in the British dungeons. In the debate on the passage of this resolution, the general spirit of the Congress was in favor of such action, and that the two great political parties in America should understand that whichever party proved a friend of the Fenian Brotherhood, would receive a pledge of support from the Brotherhood, and that this should be taught to the different Circles at home. In this way the Fenian Brotherhood would become a power, to be felt and heard in America. It was the feeling that all parties should be ignored, and that the Brotherhood should be the enemy of its enemies, and the friend of its friends, no matter who the party, or what their principles.

A declaration of principles was afterwards adopted, as were a series of resolutions, which professed a hearty co-operation with the friendly press; disclaiming and forbidding any use of the Brotherhood for political purposes, in connection with the present parties in this country; of thanks to prominent citizens who aided in the recovery of Fenian arms; of acknowledgment to the Irish Nationalists of Cleveland; and discountenancing any application of funds, except for the purchase of arms and other revolutionary purposes.

FROM LOUISVILLE, KY.

Funeral Obsequies of Gov. Helm—An Incendiary Fire.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 10.—Governor John L. Helm was buried to-day, at Elizabethtown, with civic and masonic honors. The funeral was attended by the state officers and a large number of prominent citizens. No business was transacted in any of the State or county offices. Bells were tolled from ten to one o'clock.

A Baptist Church, a two story brick, and two story frame dwellings, in Jeffersonville, Ind., were destroyed by fire last night. Loss $8,000; barely any insurance. The fire was the work of an incendiary.

Shovel and Spade Factory Destroyed.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

PHILADELPHIA, September 10.—The extensive shovel and spade factory of Geo. Griffin, near the corner of Third and Race streets, was destroyed by fire this afternoon. Loss heavy.

BY CUBA CABLE.

Mr. Otterbourg Presents His Credentials as Minister to President Juarez—Arrests by the President—Supposed Insanity of the Prussian Minister—Arrival of Admiral Tegethoff at Vera Cruz—Mr. Ottenbourg to Leave Mexico in September—Santa Anna still in Prison—Late Cuban News, &c., &c.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, September 10.—The Herald's Havana special, dated the 8th, by Cuba cable, has the following Mexican news: Mr. Otterbourg presented his credentials to President Juarez, as Minister Plenipotentiary of the United States, on the 29th ult.

Mr. Plumb, who had just arrived by the steamer Liberty from New Orleans, will take passage in the British steamer for Vera Cruz on the 22d.

Several arrests by convocatoria by Juarez continues to keep the Mexicans at boiling heat, it being unconstitutional, and the Executive not having the power so to act unless Congress approves them.

The Governor and Military Commandant of San Luis are accused of infringing upon the circulars of October 6th, and articles twenty-one and twenty-four of the General Constitution.

Mr. Ashiorz has been named Chief Official on foreign relations.

A convoy with $1,800,000 from the City of Mexico arrived at Vera Cruz on the 31st ultimo.

Intercessions of Mr. Otterbourg, Porfiero Diaz and five other generals, and a host of influential persons in behalf of O'Haron, were made in vain.

M. Magana, Prussian Minister at Mexico, keeps in seclusion at San Luis. He is supposed to be insane, and is heedless of orders from Prussia to leave the country.

Admiral Tegethoff arrived at Vera Cruz on the 25th, and was to leave for the capital the next day.

Minister Otterbourg telegraphed to Washington, after receiving his appointment, that his determination to leave in September was irrevocable.

Santa Anna continues a prisoner in San Juan. Dr. Ullica believed he would not be shot. Not a word is said about Marquez.

The Herald's special of the 5th also has the following Havana news: The Captain General has dissolved the volunteer cavalry of Santiago de Cuba, Puerto Principe, Villa Clara, Sancte Spirito, Trinidad and Remedios. This is a significant fact.

Cienfuegos, it is reported, resists the collection of the new tax. It is rumored that a polite intimation has been given that it would be enforced at the point of the bayonet.

Saturnin Marbinez, cigar twister, and editor of the Havana Artisans' Sunday Aurora, is reported to be in close confinement. The number of cigar twisters is assumed to be fourteen thousand. A few have also been imprisoned and many are fleeing to the United States.

Senor Para, the administration director, has been taken suddenly ill. His sickness is undefined by his physicians.

The supposed scheme for filibustering in Mexico is a swindle.

The Spanish squadron, under Mendez, arrived at Rio, July 16th. It had sustained serious damage, but, after repair, proceeded to river Platte.

Vomito is moderating in Havana.

CIGAR MAKERS STRIKE IN HAVANA—TWO HUNDRED IN PRISON.

HAVANA, September 10.—The strike among the cigar makers continues. About two hundred journeymen were thrown into prison, where they were properly cared for by the authorities. It is said many of the manufacturers are inclined to yield and take the men back at former wages.

HIGHWAY ROBBING.

CROPS DAMAGED.

A heavy rain storm is reported to have damaged the crops.

REFUGEES AND SPECIE FROM MEXICO.

The British steamer Mersey brought from Vera Cruz over three hundred refugees, part for New Orleans; also $1,172,000 in specie for England.

FROM WASHINGTON.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, September 10, 1867.

INDIAN AFFAIRS—PEACE OVERTURES.

The following dispatch was received by the Acting Commissioner of Indian Affairs:

Omaha, September 9.—A messenger arrived at the North Platte on the 7th inst. from Spotted Tail's camp, with the information that Todd Randall, who accompanied friendly Indians, would be at North Platte on the 15th of the month, with six white captives, three women and three children, and that the Cheyennes and Sioux were willing to make peace, and want the Commissioners to wait for them at North Platte. This looks well.

(Signed) H. B. DENMAN,
Supt. Indian Affairs.

THE WHISKY FRAUDS—COLLECTOR CALLICOT.

The charges against Callicot, Internal Revenue Collector of Brooklyn, are of defrauding the Government out of the tax on four hundred and eleven barrels of whisky, upwards of $42,000. The Post says it is reported that Callicot permitted the Government to be defrauded out of $30,000, on similar bonds, during the first month he occupied the position of Collector, from the imperfect manner in which he attended to his duties. Callicot is still in Washington, it is said attempting to avert arrest.

NAVY DEPARTMENT DISPATCHES—AFRICAN SLAVE TRADE CARRIED ON BY THE FRENCH.

The United States steamer Iroquois arrived at Aden August 12th. She touched at St. Augustine, Bay of Madagascar, where King Willy was entertained aboard. At Johanno, Comoro Islands, Commander English exchanged visits with the Sultan. Both appeared well disposed toward our flag. The Sultan informed Commander English that an indirect slave trade is and has been for some years back being carried on by the French. Their manner of proceeding is to purchase slaves on the African coast, by means of agents, who ship them in Arab scows to Mobilla, one of the Comoros, whence they are taken under representation of being apprenticed to natives of the latter place, to Mayotta, another of the group, on the Island of Bourbon, both French colonies. Captain English says he was likewise informed that some of our merchantmen touching at Johanno, have, at different times, carried off without permission, subjects of the Sultan, who complained of the acts. To guard against such occurrences in future, Commander English left a circular addressed to masters of merchantmen touching there. He expected to leave in a few days for Bombay.

BONDED WAREHOUSE REGULATIONS.

The new regulations of the Bureau of Internal Revenue, concerning bonded warehouse transportation and exportation, goods in bond, allowance for leakage and accounts of bonded goods, were issued to-day. Under them all existing warehouses must be re-established, otherwise they will be discontinued.

THE YELLOW FEVER AT PENSACOLA.

The Navy Department has received dispatches from Pensacola, announcing the continued ravages of yellow fever. The epidemic had also broken out on board the United States steamer Lenopee, at Key West.

CUSTOMS RECEIPTS.

The receipts of Customs from the 26th to the 31st of August, were $3,659,664.

OPENING OF THE NORTH GERMAN PARLIAMENT—SPEECH OF KING WILLIAM.

BERLIN, Sept. 10.—The second Parliament of the Confederation of the North German States met to-day and was formally opened by King William. In his speech the King commenced by addressing a warm welcome to the representatives as members of the First German Parliament which had met under the new Constitution. Alluding to the position of the South German States, he said their national relations with the rest of Germany had been fixed by treaties of the Zolverein. He assured the members that the financial condition of the Confederation was excellent. Its revenues so far had been sufficient to meet all expenditures. He promised that bills would be introduced providing for the complete and equal settlement of the terms and conditions of military service, making all necessary regulations in relation to passports, prescribing a system of weights and measures for the country, regulating postal matters with foreign nations, and looking to the establishment of Consulates in all the foreign ports, and the protection of the commercial marine of the Confederation everyon the high seas.

The King concluded his speech with the following peaceful aspiration: "Gentlemen, progress is to be the great principle underlying all your discussions. Your work will be a work of peace, and by God's blessings the Fatherland will in peace enjoy the fruits of your labors."

The California Election—The Decreased Vote—Haight's Majority 9,000—Death of an old Mariner.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

SAN FRANCISCO, September 10.—Complete returns from thirteen counties and partial from twenty-eight counties make Haight's majority nearly nine thousand. The nine counties to hear from give small votes, and will probably increase the majority of Haight. The total vote polled in the thirteen counties mentioned was 45,589. Haight's majority 1,955. The same counties at the last general election gave a total vote of 59,647; Union majority 8,479. The decrease of the vote in these counties this year is 14,058, notwithstanding the most exciting election for many years. Registration shows no decrease in the number entitled to vote.

The vote for Fay, Independent Republican candidate for Governor, is about 1200, so far as known.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 10.—There were forty-two yellow fever deaths during the twenty-four hours ending this morning.

THE COUNTRY'S PERIL.

Speech of Ben. Wade at Cleveland.

IMPORTANCE OF THE PRESENT CRISIS

Temper and Purpose of the Rebels Unchanged.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON "ON THE WAR PATH."

Reminiscences of Rebel Leaders.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CLEVELAND, Sep. 10th, 1867.

Senator Wade spoke here to-day, according to appointment. A large meeting listened to him. He began by saying that in his judgment no more important crisis in the history of our Government had ever existed than the present. Though the conflict of arms had ceased, there must be no relaxation. The powers which opposed the Government during the war still exist. Their purposes were unchanged, their determination unaltered. He said when the special session of Congress closed many believed that at least the President of the United States would abandon the course which he had so long pursued, accept the policy of Congress which was approved by a large majority of the people, and execute the laws passed by that body. I was not of that number, for I had no confidence that he would administer the laws with fidelity, when freed from the restraints which were necessarily upon him during the session of Congress. Surely enough he has fallen back into the same devious course, and at last we have it from his special organ that he is on the war path. By his proclamation you know that he still asserts his determination to pursue a policy in opposition to that of Congress, and we have hints from all sides that he will carry out that policy; peaceably, if he can; if not, by force. Doubtless many of you think that an undertaking so rash that no man in his senses would attempt it. And so, when Sumter was fired upon; some thought that actual war was not intended. The speaker assured the people that as great peril exists to-day as when armed rebels struck at the life of the Republic, and ardently appealed to those who saved the nation by their valor then, to rally to its salvation. No one could say he had been an alarmist. During the war he had never doubted our ultimate success; but the machinations of the present enemies of the republic do not arrest the attention, as did the clamors of war, and are so much the more dangerous for that reason. He referred to the fact that the rebel leaders show no signs of repentance, but are ready to try again when opportunity offers. He spoke of the Congressional Committee which investigated the temper and disposition of the South, and concluded that the rebellion is as rife as at any time during the war. He said in reference to that state of feeling: "The danger lies in the fact, that standing back of those who got up and carried on the rebellion was a large organized party at the North, whose sympathies were with them, and who gave them all the aid and comfort in their power. I will even say that were it not for the sympathy of the Democratic party, there would never have been a rebellion. I knew this better than you, who were at home. For day after day I was in close council with Jeff. Davis, Toombs, Benjamin, Hunter, Crittenden, and others of minor note. In that room where there were none to take notes for publication. All talked familiarly together, and the plans and purposes of the South were openly avowed. We told them that they would bring on a war. But they said no; you cannot coerce a State, insisting upon the right of States to secede. If war comes, said Davis, the blow will fall upon you, and not upon us. The North, and not the South, will be devastated. If it comes to that, the city of New York has agreed to go with us. I have no doubt they had an understanding to that effect with Wood, Barlow and others, to hurl, if possible, the great Metropolis into the whirlpool of secession. Davis also said that Pennsylvania and Indiana would go with them, and to support his statement held up defiantly the resolutions adopted on the fifth of January, 1861, by Democratic Conventions in those States, sending greetings to the leaders of secession, and pledging two hundred thousand men to assist them. One of the resolutions declared that if any attempt was made to coerce the South, the armies of the Government must march over the dead bodies of the Democracy. These he flaunted in my face, and told me that even my own State would join with them. I recollect the reply that I made to him. The Democracy of the North, like the Devil, will lead you into the scrape, and then leave you there. [Great laughter.] When it comes to the clash of arms, not one of them will dare to raise his arm in the cause of rebellion. Again, I say that but for the aid and comfort afforded the Southern leaders by the Democracy of the North, there would have been no war. I charge upon this great organized party, the responsibility of three hundred thousand of the flower of our youth lying in their graves. By the Democratic party, he meant those who kept up the party during the war, and through it, opposed the government. Those who, in Ohio, put up a convicted traitor for Governor, and exerted themselves to elect him. Where was Judge Thurman when Vallandigham was a candidate for Governor? He was acting in concert with the Great Banished, who was working out his sentence in a foreign land. Mr. Thurman could not plead ignorance in this matter. It was known to all that Mr. Vallandigham had been tried by a military tribunal, under the guidance of one of the most upright men in the service, who, if all reports are true, had he been allowed his own way, would have disposed of the case in a manner which would have prevented Mr. Vallandigham from making treasonable speeches throughout the country. Now, Mr. Thurman was a gentleman, in social relations; but as fit to be trusted with government affairs as Judas Iscariot with religion. The Democracy would gladly let bygones be bygones, but it can't be done.

Here the speaker sketched the history of the rebellion and events leading to it. He then said: Where were your Democrats when the war broke out. Its thunder awoke the Republican party and some patriotic Democrats, but the remainder thought it unconstitutional to coerce a State, and think so yet. They folded their arms and were willing to permit an invasion of the North, and the ultimate destruction of the Government by the rebels. They denounced every measure enacted for the safety of the country unconstitutional. They did all in their power to depreciate its currency, the very sinew by which the army was equipped, clothed, paid and fed, by pronouncing it rags unconstitutionally set afloat in the country. When asked to bring forth one Constitutional measure themselves for the suppression of the rebellion, they were dumb; yes, more dumb than Balaam's ass. They could not and did not do anything but cavil about the measures enacted by the Union party. It was inconsistent for Democrats to complain about the extent of a war they had helped, in extending sympathy to rebels, by their efforts to depreciate the currency, and to discourage inlistments by sending men to Canada. They swore the debt never would be paid; now they are afraid it will be paid.

On the question of negro suffrage he said it was of no practical importance, but the principle was of some significance. Who is mean enough to deprive a colored man of suffrage, where he bears his share of everything, that 'aint a Democrat?

He closed by appealing to those from the country to organize their townships so that every available man could be brought to the polls. Whatever is most valuable among men is obtained by the hardest labor and retained by the greatest vigilance. It would require considerable work to meet the scheming plans of the Democracy. There are clouds and difficulties before us now, but with a firm determination to overcome these impediments, the way will soon be clear.

SECOND MILITARY DISTRICT.

Order Concerning Exiled Rebels, or Those Who Have Not Given Their Parole.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CHARLESTON, Sept. 10.—Gen. Canby has issued the following:

HEADQUARTERS SECOND MILITARY DISTRICT,
CHARLESTON, Sept. 7, 1867.

General Orders No. 86.—It being known that many persons subject to parole under the terms of the surrender of the insurgent armies, have, since the 9th day of April, 1865, voluntarily exiled themselves from the States lately in rebellion, thereby evading the obligations manfully assumed and faithfully observed by all others subject thereto, and have since returned to the United States:

It is ordered, that all such persons, residents or domiciled, or who may hereafter become residents or domiciled, within the limits of the military district, be required to give, within thirty days after the receipt of this order, at headquarters of the post at the district in which they may be so resident or domiciled, the parole prescribed on the 9th day of April, 1865. The parole will be given in duplicate, one to be retained by the person who gives it, the other to be forwarded to district headquarters for record and transmission.

The Provost Marshal General of the District is charged with the execution of this order.

Defaulting Teller Captured.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

SAVANNAH, September 10.—Joseph S. Caruthers, defaulting Teller of the Central Railroad Bank, shipped as mate on the schooner Wm. Gregory, bound to Havana, which was overhauled by a pilot boat, two miles at sea, and brought back in a leaking condition, having five feet of water in the hold. Caruthers says he allowed a friend to overdraw his account and he was not benefitted one dollar himself.

Maine Election—Latest.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, September 10.—A special to the World from Maine expresses the belief that Chamberlin's majority will not exceed 5,000 to 8,000, that the State Senate stands seven Democrats to twenty-four Republicans, and that the Democrats count on a majority in the House.

Chief Justice Woodward Nominated For Congress.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WILKESBARRE, PA., September 10.—Ex-Chief Justice Woodward has been nominated by the Democrats for the vacancy in the Twelfth Congressional District, occasioned by the death of Dennison.

COURT OF OYER AND TERMINER.

The Trial of Victor G. Kellar, Charged with the Murder of James Goldrich.

In the Court of Oyer and Terminer yesterday morning, before Judges Sterrett and Stowe, Victor G. Kellar, indicted for the murder of James Goldrich, in the Third ward, Allegheny, in June last, was put upon his trial. The prisoner, who is a young man of prepossessing appearance, was arraigned in the usual manner, and entered the plea of "not guilty." The Commonwealth was represented in this case by District Attorney Duff and Messrs. Cochran and Morrison, and the defense by John M. Kirkpatrick and Thomas M. Marshall, Esqs.

HISTORY OF THE CASE.

The homicide was committed at the house of Dennis Kellar, on Ohio street, Allegheny, on the night of the 10th of June last. The deceased and Thomas McFarland had been attending a pic-nic on Troy Hill, in the afternoon, and were returning home between ten and eleven o'clock. While going down Ohio street Goldrich proposed to go over to Dennis Kellar's liquor store and get a drink. They went into the store and asked for a drink, when Victor Kellar, nephew of Dennis Kellar, told them that they did not retail liquor and that the drinks could not be furnished. At this time Dennis Kellar came into the room, when a second demand for drinks was made, and again refused. A disturbance then occurred, during which Goldrich was shot in the head, and died a few hours afterwards, having in the meantime been removed to his mother's house at the head of East street, Allegheny.

Thomas M'Farland, companion of the deceased, was charged with having done the shooting, it being alleged that he had intended to shoot one of the Kellars, and had killed Goldrich by accident. He was arrested immediately after the affray, and placed in the Allegheny lock-up. On the 11th of June, Coroner Clawson impannelled a jury and proceeded to investigate the circumstances attending the death of Goldrich, and on the evening of the same day, or the following day, M'Farland had a hearing before Mayor Morrison, an information charging him with murder having been made by Dennis Kellar. The Coroner's jury rendered a verdict to the effect "that the deceased came to his death from a wound inflicted by a pistol shot fired either by Thomas M'Farland or Victor G. Kellar, but that they were unable to determine which one." Under this finding Kellar was arrested, and both he and M'Farland were finally committed to await trial for murder. When the case of M'Farland came before the Grand Jury, Assistant District Attorney Riddell suggested that further search be made for the pistol with which the shooting was supposed to be done, as up to that time no weapon had been discovered. M'Farland was searched immediately after his arrest, but no pistol was found in his possession, and there was no evidence adduced, either before the Coroner or at the hearing before the Mayor, to show that he ever carried such a weapon. On the other hand, it was shown that Kellar had a pistol, and that immediately after the shooting he left the store room and went into a rear room, but that shortly afterwards he returned. In accordance with the suggestion of the Assistant District Attorney, Coroner Clawson and officer Wrigley visited the house of Dennis Kellar for the purpose of making a thorough search for the pistol. After examining the house, search was made in the back yard, and in the privy vault a several barrelled revolver was found. Six of the barrels were loaded and one empty. The discovery of the pistol changed the appearance of the case, and seemed to point to Kellar as the murderer. The Grand Jury then ignored the bill against McFarland, and he was released from custody. A true bill was found against Victor Kellar, and since that time he has been confined in the county jail. Kellar, previous to his arrest, was employed in his father's hardware store, on Ohio street, Allegheny, a few doors below that of Dennis Kellar. Goldrich, the deceased, was employed in a machine shop in this city, at which establishment McFarland was also employed.

THE JURY.

There were but few challenges either by the prosecution or defense. The following jury was impanneled:

1. Geo. Ammon, Sixth Ward, Pittsburgh.
2. Jesse Connor, Upper St. Clair Township.
3. Robert McGregor, Penn Township.
4. Andrew Large, Mifflin Township.
5. John Flack, Fourth Ward, Pittsburgh.
6. Jos. Hastings, Third Ward, Pittsburgh.
7. Hugh R. Hamilton, West Deer Township.
8. John F. Courter, Harrison Township.
9. John Marshall, Sixth Ward, Pittsburgh.
10. John Allen, Lower St. Clair Township.
11. Joseph Ross, First Ward, Pittsburgh.
12. William Franey, Baldwin Township.

OPENING FOR THE COMMONWEALTH.

Robert S. Morrison, Esq., opened the case for the Commonwealth. He alluded to the grave nature of the offense for which the prisoner was indicted, and then briefly sketched the facts proposed to be proved by the prosecution. He said the evidence would be of such a character as to leave out of their consideration the question of murder in the second degree. The verdict must be either murder in the first degree, voluntary manslaughter, or acquittal.

THE EVIDENCE.

Thomas Goldrich, sworn—The deceased James Goldrich was a brother of mine; he died on the 11th of June, in Allegheny city, from a wound in the head, at my mother's house.

Doctor Alcorn, sworn—Was called to see James Goldrich at eleven o'clock on the night of the 11th of June, at the store of Dennis Keller, on the corner of Ohio street and East Lane, Allegheny city; Goldrich was lying on the floor between the end of the counter and the window; he was bleeding from a wound in the side of his head; passed a probe into the wound about five inches, and made up my mind that the wound was fatal; made a second examination which substantiated the first; the young man (Goldrich) spoke twice to me; he asked me if I thought he would recover; I told him I thought not. About noon on the 11th of June performed a post mortem examination. The witness then described the nature of the wound, and produced fragments of bone. He had no doubt the wound caused the death of Goldrich.

Thomas McFarland, sworn—Live in Irwin's alley, Allegheny; was with James Goldrich at Dennis Kellar's on the 10th of June last; we both asked for liquor and were both refused; some words passed as we were going out; was attracted by a scuffle between the deceased and Dennis Kellar; turned round and was met by deponent and struck; the blow knocked me down; don't remember anything more until I was arrested and put inside the door. [Deceased described the position of Goldrich and Keller.] Goldrich had Dennis Kellar by the hair when I first saw them scuffling, and just before I was knocked down.

No cross-examination.

James Marshall, sworn—Live on West street, Allegheny; on the night of the 10th of June was going up Ohio street on the opposite side of the street from Kellar's; heard a disturbance and started across the street; stopped between the railroad tracks when I heard the glass breaking; I then crossed over, and just as I reached the pavement saw the flash of a pistol; a policeman then rushed past me, took hold of McFarland, and brought him out of the door; didn't know McFarland at the time; went into the house to see who was hurt; then went down the street to see where McFarland was taken by the officers; after I came back to Kellar's, Goldrich had rolled to the other side of the room; when I first looked in I saw Goldrich lying on the floor; the prisoner was standing near the end of the counter.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

James Marshall, re-called—The second time I looked in the store the prisoner was gone; when I saw the flash of the pistol, McFarland was leaning towards the door, and the flash was immediately over his shoulder, on the inside of the door; it appeared as if some person had hold of McFarland; did not see any person have hold of him; can't tell who fired the shot—did not see; it must have been fired near the door, judging from the flash; I observed no other person in the room that I knew, but old Mr. Kellar; there were several others in; they were scattered all through the room, scuffling; when I looked in the second time, after the shot, the scuffling was all over; when I looked in after the flash,—a second or two afterwards,—Kellar was gone.

Cross-examined—After the shooting did not see the other persons scattered through the room; they all came to where Goldrich was laying.

Direct examination resumed—I saw three or four persons in the room after Goldrich fell; the flash did not seem to be more than three feet from the end of the counter, where Kellar was standing; it was twenty minutes past ten when the shooting took place; the room was lighted.

John Brown, sworn—Live on Ohio street, Allegheny; on the night of the occurrence I was passing up the street, when I heard a disturbance, then the crash of glass, and the report of a pistol; went over when I saw a man (Goldrich) lying on his face on the floor, with his feet towards the door; there were five or six in the room, but did not know any of them but McFarland; did not see the prisoner there the first time I went in.

Officer Charles Wessel, sworn—About half-past ten the night of the occurrence, I was on the opposite side of Ohio street from Mr. Kellar's; saw two men come up Ohio street and push into Kellar's; soon after they went in I saw the same door pushed open, and saw M'Farland, wearing a white coat, scuffling with some person in the house; heard the report of a pistol, and ran over; when I came over I arrested McFarland and searched him; did not see Victor Kellar, the prisoner, at the house; was across the street when I saw the flash of the pistol; it seemed to come from some where near McFarland's face.

Cross-examined.—The flash seemed to come pretty near the raised arm of the man in the white coat; the man in the white coat is the same man I afterwards arrested as McFarland.

John Marshall, recalled—When I looked over Ohio street I saw McFarland in Keller's door, just standing on the inside of the door; he had his arm raised; when I heard the report of a pistol I started over; when I looked in I saw deceased lying on the floor; did not see the prisoner, or the flash of the pistol.

Stewart Charles, sworn—Was on the opposite side of the street from Kellar's; heard a disturbance there and then the report of a pistol; when I got over a policeman had hold of McFarland; saw deceased lying on the floor, near the door.

Cross-examined—There were not more than three or four inside of the door, but a considerable crowd soon afterwards.

Wm. McKnight testified that he was passing up Ohio street, on the night of the affair, and heard the report of a pistol at Kellar's; did not see the prisoner, Kellar there; but saw McFarland in the hands of an officer.

Mayor Morrison, of Allegheny, sworn—Saw the prisoner the next morning after the occurrence. He stated he was in the room at Kellar's, on the night of the affair, and got into a scuffle with McFarland; the latter struck two blows, when a pistol was fired, and he (Kellar) leaped over the barrels and ran out of the room; I asked him why he went out, and he said he was afraid he would be shot himself. He made several statements, but don't recollect them particularly; they were substantially the same as I have stated.

Peter Barnes, colored, testified that he found a revolver in the privy vault of Kellar's house, in clearing the same soon after the occurrence; he identified the pistol produced by the prosecution as the one he found in the privy; when found one barrel had been fired out.

Officer John Wrigley testified he was present when the pistol was fired; there was one load out of the pistol and six in.

W. J. Patterson testified that he removed six loads from the pistol; there was one barrel empty when he did so; had in my possession the ball left with me by Dr. Aborn; it weighed 28 grains heavy, and the five bullets taken from the pistol 29¼ grains; a bullet loses in weight in passing through objects.

Dr. Perchment testified that he saw a pistol some three or four weeks before the occurrence in Kellar's possession; cannot give any idea as to what was its size.

Hugh Beck testified that a long time before the occurrence, Kellar gave him a pistol to sell, saying he didn't want to carry it any longer.

The pistol—a seven barreled one—was offered in evidence.

The Commonwealth rested here, and Mr. Marshall announced that the defence would also rest, and were willing to submit the case under the charge of the Court. This proposition was not accepted by the Commonwealth; and Mr. A. G. Cochran addressed the jury for the prosecution.

Messrs. Marshall and Kirkpatrick followed Mr. Cochran, for the defense, in brief speeches. They argued that the Commonwealth had entirely failed to make out a case against the prisoner, and claimed a verdict of acquittal, on the facts as presented by the prosecution.

Col. Duff closed the case for the prosecution. The Court then adjourned until this morning at nine o'clock, when Judge Stowe will charge the jury.

The Alleged Outrage—Partial Hearing.

A partial hearing in the case of Alexander M. Haight, implicated in the alleged outrage of Kate Waldron, said to have been perpetrated on Sunday evening, September 1st, took place before his Honor Mayor McCarthy, yesterday afternoon. The Commonwealth was represented by Assistant District Attorney Riddell, John C. McCarthy and S. H. Geyer, Esqs., appearing for the defense.

Kate L. Waldron, the prosecutrix, was called to the stand and testified as follows: My age is twenty-one years; attended church a week ago last Sabbath; missed my way when I came out and went down Penn street; was near the Scott House; met two men who came near me and I asked them the way to the Union Hotel, when one of them said I was a long way from it, but that they were going that way and would go with me. They spoke together, and one of them said again that I was a long way from the Hotel, and said I had better get a carriage; I thanked him, and he went around the corner, and returned immediately with a carriage. He said to the driver "Bill, take the lady to the Union House;" I said "not to the Union House, but the Union Hotel;" they said it was all the same; asked the driver what he would charge; he said, "one dollar," and I paid him and got in; as the driver was starting both men got in the carriage and sat down in front of me; I spoke to them; as I did so I was seized, and one of them placed a saturated towel or cloth over my mouth; I remember nothing more; could not resist them and became insensible; remember nothing more until I recovered at Mr. Fitzsimmons' house on Monday morning; I asked where I was when I recovered; they brought me a diary and asked if it was mine; I said it was, and that I had one hundred and fifteen dollars paid me on Saturday. Two rings were missing from my fingers, and the fingers werered and swollen. I had paid but one dollar out of the $115, and that I gave to the driver; I had a railway ticket to Boston which was also missing; the money was greenbacks; lost nothing else. It was twenty minutes to nine o'clock when I left the church; think I entered the carriage ten minutes afterwards; can't fix the place where I got into the carriage precisely; it was a close carriage; saw the men when they got in; one of them was a large man; saw one of the men; that is the man (pointing to Haight); I know him by his face and general appearance; he is the larger of the two; saw him again at Mr Fitzsimmons' on Thursday; never saw him before this occurrence; he is the man who took hold of me and the smaller one put the towel on my face; have not seen the smaller man since.

Cross-examined—Came to this city from Galveston; going to Massachusetts; Mr. Allen, from Tennessee, gave me the money on Sunday; do not know where he is now; never was at Christchurch before; did not know that it was the Scott House I saw; I found it out by being there on last Sunday; was there with the Mayor; went from the Church over the same route with the Mayor that I had gone over before the occurrence took place; the driver was a white man; he said nothing to me but what I have stated before; I saw the defendant at Mr. Fitzsimmons'; I was not told he was there; I was told that several gentlemen were down stairs that wanted to see me; don't know that Mr. Scott ever told me that he had arrested the man; several were brought there for identification; after leaving the Scott House I turned and went into a street or an alley and came out near a drug store; don't know whether it was in a corner or not; don't know whether a railway was near the drug store; don't know which side of the street the drug store is on; didn't know the direction I took, turned to my left from the Scott House; don't know then which way I went; it was near the drug store I got in the carriage; there was a street gas-light near; was approached by the men near the drug store; can't tell how I got to the drug store; when I came to the Scott House I went toward the bridge and then turned to my left; don't know the streets; was never here before; the men passed me at the Scott House; before I reached the drug store they turned back, and then I spoke to them. Arrived at the Union Hotel somewhere about ten o'clock on Saturday night; saw a light in the drug store; didn't register my name at the hotel; I believe a name was registered for me, but I don't know who did it; the name was Dalton; I think the head clerk registered it; don't know the first name registered; I had the wrong name put down because I thought I was followed; I had a portmonnie and a watch taken from me on my way to this city; I had no money, and was passed free from station to station; I saw a man who I had seen on the train, at the Union Hotel when I took supper; I had my sister's husband's name registered; I saw the man watching me at the house; the watch and portmonnie were taken from me on the road between Canton and Grenada (Miss); on Saturday morning I went to get a tooth extracted; it was before daylight; I went to church alone in the evening. Re-direct—The money I got from Mr. Allen was loaned to me; he is now in Washington, I think; saw him at the Union Hotel; he was not stopping there; it was Sunday afternoon; he is a widower; last saw him when he was one of a party going to Galveston, some ten weeks ago

In chief—I don't know how Allen knew I was at the Union Hotel; he was shown to my room by the porter; might have known it by the name registered, Dalton, which is my brother's name; often have it so registered.

There being no other witnesses present, a further hearing was postponed until half past six o'clock Saturday.

The Late Race.

The late sculling match for the championship of American waters, between Brown and Hamill, at Newburg, New York, continues to furnish material for conversation in sporting circles of this city. The friends of our plucky townsman, Hamill, are by no means satisfied with the result. The mere decision in his favor by the referee satisfactorily settles nothing, excepting perhaps that Brown cannot row a fair race. Pittsburghers were anxious that the contest should have been a fair one, and that Hamill should either have been beaten in a manly way or else afforded an opportunity to demonstrate beyond all dispute his superiority over his opponent for aquatic celebrity and honor. Hamill has won back to his side many friends who deserted him, but who are now prepared to stand by him in the future, believing that he is rightfully the champion of American waters. Brown had a whole host of admirers in this neighborhood, but his disgraceful conduct in the late race requires some further and more satisfactory explanation than has yet been given. Many thousands of dollars have changed hands on the result and a large portion of the stakes have been promptly paid over to Hamill's backers on demand.

Held to Bail.

In the GAZETTE of Monday it was stated that James H. Flack, baggage master on Wall's Accommodation train, Pennsylvania Railroad, had been knocked down on Washington street, Saturday night, and robbed of his pocket book, containing between seventy and eighty dollars. Our information was received from a police officer, who we presume was misinformed in the matter, as it appears that there was no robbery committed.

Mr. Flack, however, was assaulted at the time and place mentioned, and an information for assault and battery was made before the Mayor against Michael Maloney, Edward O'Neill and James Hughes. The parties were arrested Monday morning and taken to the lock-up, where they remained until yesterday afternoon, when a hearing was had, W. C. Moreland and John S. Lambie, Esqs., appearing for the prosecution, and W. M. Moffit, Esq., for the defence. A number of witnesses, including Mr. Flack, were sworn, and examined, whose testimony was all to the effect that Maloney had committed the assault and battery, and he was consequently held in the sum of $500 for his appearance at Court. There being no evidence against O'Neill and Hughes they were discharged.

Attempted Burglary.—An attempt was made to burglarize the merchant tailoring establishment of E Houston & Co., No. 107 Fifth street, on Monday night. The thieves endeavored to force open the front door, by using a chisel for the purpose, but were evidently frightened away before effecting an entrance. The firm has placed a special watchman in their store who will hereafter be pleased to pay his attention to a lead to any who may at unseasonable hours "go for" the neat fitting garments for which the establishment is proverbial.

111 Eligible Building Lots at Auction.—In Oakland township, (near city line) on Saturday, September 14th, at 3½ o'clock, P. M., precisely, on the premises, will be sold one hundred and eleven various sized Building Lots, near the residences of Dr. Gazzam, Wm. H. Smith and Jno. Dunlap, Esqs., on the beautiful knoll overlooking Pennsylvania and Centre avenues, and within a few steps of the passenger cars on both those thoroughfares. See advertisement of Smiteson, Palmer & Co.

Base Ingratitude.

Another swindling affair has recently taken place in this city, in which the perpetrator displayed the most base ingratitude a man could possibly be guilty of. The facts, as related to us, are as follows: On the 21st of May a man, calling himself C. S. Foster, came to this city in a destitute condition, with scarcely clothing enough to cover his nakedness, and presented himself at the office of Mr. E. T. Cook, agent for the North American Life Insurance Company, representing that he had come from Georgia originally, but had recently been engaged in the life insurance business in some of the eastern cities, and in confirmation of this statement he produced letters of recommendation from prominent eastern men. He said he was very tired and hungry, having traveled a long distance on foot, and part of the time having very little to eat. Mr. Cook's sympathies were aroused by his statement, and, at Foster's request, secured him a boarding house, becoming personally responsible for his board, furnished him with clothes, and some money, and gave him a situation at which he could make some two thousand dollars a year. Foster went to work immediately, canvassing in the city for policies, and being sharp, active and energetic, was succeeding admirably. Mr. C., however, was careful not to entrust him with any large amounts of money, or allow him to do any collecting, not that he was in any way suspicious of him, but because it is not his manner of doing business

Monday morning Foster went to the office and took from the drawer a policy on which there was due $66 from Mr. John Paisley, of the Ninth ward, and about nine o'clock he called upon Mr. P., collected the money, and has not since been heard of. Mr. Cook missed the policy in the afternoon and called upon Mr. Paisley, who informed him that he had paid the money to Foster about nine o'clock. He returned to the office and waited until six o'clock in the evening for Foster, who did not make his appearance. He then went to his boarding house and inquired for him, when he was met by the landlady with a bill of $75 for Foster's board, which, having promised to be responsible for, he had to pay. The landlady informed him that Foster had not been there since breakfast. He is an ungrateful wretch and deserves to be severely punished. But it will be necessary to catch him first. Officer Hague has the case in hands, and is after the scamp.

Shooting Affray.

A shooting affray occurred in Birmingham yesterday evening about four o'clock, in which John Salisbury, of that place, was the principal actor. It appears that Salisbury had borrowed a pistol for the purpose of shooting a dog, and while passing up Carson street met a crowd of men on a corner, with whom he had some words, when he pulled out the pistol and fired into the crowd indiscriminately, the ball passing through the fleshy part of the thigh of Mr. William Uncks. Such indiscriminate shooting should not be tolerated in a civilized community, and we presume will not be passed over by the citizens of Birmingham without giving the perpetrator an opportunity to justify his conduct. He had not been arrested at last accounts.

Fatal Accident.

A fatal accident occurred at the tunnel on the Pennsylvania Railroad, about a mile and a half west of Greensburg, yesterday morning. The watchman at that point was run over by a train and instantly killed. It appears that the eastern and western trains pass at that point, and it is supposed that the deceased, who was on duty at the time, stepped from one track to let a train pass when he was struck by an approaching train from an opposite direction. The body, which was horribly mangled, was taken to Braddock's Fields, where the family of the deceased resides. We were unable to learn the name of the unfortunate man.

Drowned—Coroner's Inquest.

A distressing accident occurred at Glenwood, between three and four o'clock on Sunday, resulting in the death by drowning of John M'Nally, a little boy about five years old. He had been playing with his little brother on a brick flat in the Monongahela river, when he accidentally fell overboard, and before he could be rescued he was drowned. The remains were not discovered until yesterday afternoon. Coroner Clawson held an inquest on the body yesterday morning, and a verdict of accidental death was rendered.

Narrow Escape.

A delegate from the West, en route to the Fenian Convention at Cleveland, came near losing his life at Wellsville, Ohio, yesterday morning. In attempting to get on the cars as they were moving out of the depot, he missed his footing, and fell between the cars and the platform. He received a very severe cut on the head, and was otherwise injured, but not seriously. He was brought to Pittsburgh for medical treatment.

To be, or not to be—that's the question.

Whether to suffer with mental anguish,
Feverish lips, cracking pains, dyspeptic agonies,
and nameless bodily suffering;
Or whether, with sudden dash,
Seize a bottle of PLANTATION BITTERS,
And, as Gunther swears, be myself a man Again.
Gunther said my eyes were sallow,
My visage haggard, my breath tremendous bad—
My disposition troublesome—in fact,
He gently hinted I was fast becoming
Quite a nuisance.
Four bottles now beneath my vest have Disappeared,
My food has relish, my appetite is keen,
My step elastic, my mind brilliant, and
Nine pounds, avoirdupois, is added to my Weight.

MYLER—On Tuesday, Sept. 10th, 1867, at ½ past 1 o'clock P. M., MARY E., eldest child of T. T. and Caroline C. Myler, aged 10 years and 21 days.

"Her sun hath gone down while it was yet day."

Funeral from the residence of the parents, 25 Isabella street, Allegheny City, on Thursday, 12th inst., at 10 o'clock A. M. Friends of the family are invited to attend.

[Thus hath passed from a cold, cheerless earth to the bright home of the Father in Heaven a spirit too pure for this life of sin and sorrow. Gentle, kind, loving and affectionate, innocent, guileless and good, she has passed away. As the soul fluttered for escape, and the cold seal of death was being affixed on her sweet brow, a tearful prayer breathing hope and resignation broke from her lips; it was commenced on earth and finished before the Throne of God, in the sanctuaries of eternity, and myriads of cherubims and seraphims chanted the "Amen." Of such is the Kingdom of Heaven. McC.]

MONARCHS TURNING REFORMERS.

When the King of Prussia was maturing plans for putting himself at the head of the movement for the consolidation of Germany he found it necessary to propitiate the Liberal element. This was not at all to his liking, but as he could attain his end in no other way, he adopted many of the essential features of a truly representative government. During the war that followed he openly infringed the authority of the Parliament. Upon the cessation of hostilities he appeased the nation by confessing his usurpations, pleading the necessities of the case in extenuation, and promising to do so no more. It has, nevertheless, been evident ever since that his temper, and that of his counsellors, was despotic; that the profession of Liberalism was not real, but simulated, and would be laid aside whenever the design of it should be accomplished, provided the disposition of the masses of the people at that time should not make a return to imperialism unsafe to the reigning family.

The Emperor of Austria, notwithstanding his inherited immobility, seems at last to comprehend the nature and extent of the advantages reaped by his great antagonist through a pretended zeal for popular institutions. The first indication of this was furnished in the decree allowing freedom of worship, which was issued upon his inauguration as King of Hungary. This, however, was not specially significant. For many ages it has been the habit of the Austrian Emperors, when borne down by misfortunes, to make concessions to the Slavonic populations; to convoke the Hungarian and Bohemian Parliaments; to be crowned, with due solemnities as King in those countries, making public oath to maintain the ancient liberties thereof; but as soon as the tide turned, or the sun of prosperity dawned, they have forgotten their vows, abolished the Parliaments, failed to remember that they were only constitutional monarchs in those countries, and have ruled over them as Emperors of Austria, treating them in most, if not in all particulars, as provinces of that empire. Liberty of worship seemed to follow as a necessary consequence of his diminished power in Germany. Last week, however, he advanced further, calling into his Cabinet Dr. BERGER and Dr. GISKRA, two of the most conspicuous and able of the German radicals.

There can be no mistaking what this means in Austria. In England, in years past, the elevation by the Government of eminent and powerful radicals, implied that they had been bought by titles and pensions; had been allied in interest and caste with the aristocracy to strip them of power with the people; or to make, through senality or ambition, their talents subsidiary to privilege and proscription. In Germany, as matters stand, a different conclusion is the only one allowable. The Emperor of Austria has pressing need of the sympathy and support of the Liberals. He must have it, or soon, in the progress of events, he must cease to be Emperor or even King. Rather than give up the whole, he makes a virtue of necessity and renounces a part. He must combat his opponent with his own weapons. It is more than probable that if he should gain his end, by regaining prestige, and with it substantial power in Germany, he would revoke his concessions and return to absolutism, with all its traditions, should the time arrive when such a retrogression promised to be successful. Till then he will stoop in hope of conquering.

But it must not be forgotten that during the present century a vast intellectual movement has progressed thoughout Germany. Shut out by the repression of the various governments from the domain of politics, a large number of thinkers have invaded the realm of theology. The peculiar mental characteristic of most of these men has been doubt. With surprising calmness and audacity they have questioned and denied the most venerable usages and doctrines that have come down from antiquity. It would be absurd to suppose that this mental habit had not broken over the partition wall between the ecclesiastial or theologic and the secular or political. When a habit of mind has been once established by practice on a particular subject, it will assert its supremacy when other topics are brought under review. While German thinkers have not been permitted to publicly express their thoughts and conclusions on political problems they have not been idle. In this realm, also, they have questioned antiquity.

VOLTAIRE was hedged about by the same and even greater impediments. But he discussed all points in theology, promulgating the most audacious opinions with a dexterity absolutely marvellous. The effect of his eighty odd years of mental toil was a political revolution, in which the old foundations were completely uptorn. The Bastile, Lettres de Cachet, and hundreds more of the abominations of the Middle Ages were demolished. A new era dawned on France; nor are all the legitimate fruits of that Revolution yet ripe and fit to be gathered.

In like manner German unbelief gives token of producing most valuable results through political ameliorations. Its crowned heads feel the new necessity that is laid on them, and are constrained to emulate each other in large measures of reform. The German people, let us hope, have reached such a pitch of general enlightenment, that whatever concessions they wrench from their rulers, they will be able to maintain unto the end.

IN 1862 and again in 1863, during the darkest hours of the civil war, the Republicans of Pennsylvania allowed an apathetic spirit to creep over them to such a degree as to throw the Legislature into the hands of the Democrats, thus enabling them to elect Mr. Buckalew to the United States Senate in place of Mr. Wilmot. The disaster to the Republican cause, experienced last week in California, has enkindled hopes in the minds of the Democrats here that they may be able to carry Mr. Sharswood over Mr. Williams, and thus secure a majority on the bench of the Supreme Court. Such a result would be of incalculable damage to the general interests of the nation; for it would inspire the whole disloyal and semi-disloyal elements with boundless expectations, and lead to most serious complications. It is, therefore, of the utmost importance that the Republicans of Pennsylvania, with one accord, betake themselves to the task of so perfecting their arrangements as to secure a full vote, which means a Republican triumph.

SOME PERSONS living in Atlanta, Ga., having proposed to erect a monument to the memory of President LINCOLN, the Sentinel, of that city, in its issue of August 21st, made this fiendish assault upon the great martyr:

"If these Atlanta patriots wish a pretty inscription for their 'gorgeous pile,' let us suggest the following:

FORMED OF THE BONES
AND
CEMENTED BY THE BLOOD OF THE
GLORIOUS PATRIOTS,
Who fell by hireling bullets while fighting for their country's cause.
THIS MONUMENT
IS ERECTED
TO THE MEMORY
OF
Abraham Lincoln,
BY
ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND
WIDOWS AND ORPHANS, WHO
RECOGNIZED IN HIM
THE BLOODY MURDERER
OF THEIR
HUSBANDS AND FATHERS,
AND THE
FANATICAL DESTROYER
FREE GOVERNMENT IN AMERICA."

THE Post endeavors to make it appear that some of the Republican friends of Gov. CURTIN think that Senator CAMERON exercised whatever influence he could to procure the nomination of Maj. ERRETT for State Senator.

It is the policy of the Post to stir up strife in our ranks wherever possible, and it fancies that it can do so easily by reviving last winter's fight over the United States Senatorship.

In this, however, it is mistaken. The Republicans of this county are gifted with too much good sense to be led off from the support of their ticket by any side issues raised or suggested by their enemies.

The late Senatorial contest in this county was not fought or decided upon any such issue as that suggested by the Post. Neither CAMERON nor CURTIN had anything whatever to do with it. Many of Gov. CURTIN's warmest friends supported the nomination of Mr. ERRETT, whilst some of Gen. CAMERON's friends supported Mr. BIGHAM. The whole question was decided upon local grounds and upon considerations personal only to the two candidates. But few stopped to inquire how either of the candidates felt upon the United States Senatorial struggle of last winter.

We are satisfied, moreover, that great injustice is done to Mr. ERRETT when he is classified as being this or that man's man. During a political career of nearly thirty years he has maintained his personal integrity intact, and no man living has power or influence sufficient to swerve him one hair's breadth from what he thinks or believes to be right. He can say emphatically that he is no man's man; that he is wedded to no man's fortunes; and that he will follow no man's lead. He will go to Harrisburg free from all personal embarrassments and unfettered by alliances of any kind; and his past life is a sufficient token that he holds his personal integrity superior to every possible claim of personal friendship.

We can say without hesitation what we happen to know, that Mr. ERRETT stands upon the same terms of personal intimacy with Gov. CURTIN as with Gen. CAMERON; that he hopes to maintain the most friendly relations with the many public men of the State with whom he is acquainted; that he esteems the principles and aims of the Republican party as superior to all mere personal considerations, and that he will stand by the welfare of his State and County with firmness and fidelity, no matter who or what may oppose.

We trust, therefore, that no Republican will suffer himself to be led away by these attempts of the enemy to introduce personal feuds into the canvass. This battle is to be fought out upon the vital National and State questions at issue, and upon them alone, and no other element should be permitted to enter in.

The Last Man's Society—Small Attendance at the Twenty-Second Anniversary.

In 1832 an association was formed in Cincinnati, which was denominated the "Last Man's Society." It was composed of seven young men, engaged in various pursuits, and was organized when the cholera was prevailing for the first time in this country. These young men were drawn together by a common tie of friendship and brotherhood, and were impelled to their action, at the time, on account of the dangers which were believed to surround them.

It was agreed, among other things, that the anniversary of the organization should be sacredly observed as long as any of them lived, or until one of them was left alone, when he was required for once, at least, to observe its return. The anniversary observance was to consist, in part, of a repast, to be provided by one of the members, each taking his turn, the selection to be made by casting lots. All who could do so were bound to be present at the anniversary festival, even if it involved considerable sacrifice.

In the celebration of the the anniversary the table was always to be spread for seven, the full number of the society. In case of the absence of one or more, from death or other unfavorable causes, the plates were to remain unturned, while the vacant chair was to be in its place.

For five years not a death occurred among the members. At the sixth anniversary the first unturned plate and the first vacant chair were in their places, occasioned by the death of one of the members. This death occurred on the 26th of June, 1837; the second death took place in November following; the third on the 18th of October, 1843; the fourth, November 15, 1847; the fifth, January 5, 1853; and the the sixth, August 2d, 1857.

On the twenty-first anniversary but two of the members were present; and when the twenty-second arrived the last tie had been sundered, and the "last man" was left alone to fulfil the sacred obligation he had assumed. With six unturned plates and six vacant chairs around the table, he was left in solitude and silence to celebrate the last anniversary of the association. All but himself had been summoned to that "bourne from whence no traveler returns." He still lives, and has has survived his companions for ten years. He is a prominent member of one of the leading professions, is at present in the enjoyment of excellent health, and a candidate upon the Democratic ticket for an important office in Hamilton county.

Child Lost on a Prairie—A Western Incident.

Quite an excitement was created in Malta, De Kalb county, Illinois, by the announcement at an early hour on Friday morning that a little girl, aged about three years, daughter of a farmer, had wandered from home during the morning of Thursday, and had not been found, though diligent search had been made by her father and his neighbors all through Thursday evening and night. As soon as the distressing fact was made known, prompted by that humanity which is characteristic of the great-hearted Western man, nearly one hundred earnest hearts volunteered to prosecute the search. At an early hour in the day they had gathered at the point where the little one was last seen.

The plan of search was arranged by forming a line with a space between the men of about five yards, and thus sweep the prairie from side to side. Hour after hour passed in this labor of mercy, and, though the day was fearfully hot, and the deep prairie grass sometimes impassible, these noble men labored on, determined to save the little wanderer if yet alive, and relieve the awful anxiety of the distracted parents. Occasional traces of the little creature were found. Once the marks of its little bare feet (it was bonnetless and shoeless) were perceptible in the edge of a cornfield, but it penetrated only a short distance.

It is supposed that night was coming on when it reached the cornfield, and the heavy shadows in the thick corn had terrors for the little one which drove it back to the prairie again. Now and then marks on the heavy prairie grass were discernible, where, possibly exhausted and wholly overcome, it would fall and lie until rest and the cool grass would revive it, and then off it would move to repeat time after time these efforts, which probably before the rising of another sun would have released its spirit from the suffering clay, and its wanderings ended in a heavenly sleep.

—Trades-Unions in England, since the exposure of the Sheffield outrages, have fallen into a disrepute which it will take them a long while to overcome, and now Friendly Societies seem likewise in danger of deserving popular odium. Lord Lichfield has made a speech showing how shamefully some of these associations are mismanaged, and how, under the pretence of mutual benefit, they work gross injustice to a class of persons who can ill afford to suffer pecuniary loss. One society, out of an income of £125,000 a year, spent £45,864 in the expenses of management. In other cases the expenses, for the payment of collectors and other functionaries, and similar charges, amount to no less than half the receipts. One association was mentioned which numbers 8,037 members, and received in premiums from the working classes £1,764, and actually spent in administration £1,125, or nearly two-thirds of its income. That is to say, the laborer who contributes a dollar to the funds of a society managed in this extravagant way actually puts by for future use not a dollar, but only forty cents. Whether any of the numerous benefit societies in the United States are conducted in this wickedly prodigal fashion we do not know, but it would be worth while for those interested to inquire. They should be strictly bound to make full and frequent publication of their financial condition, under such supervision as will insure an honest and intelligible report. Such extravagance as Lord Lichfield instances is no better than robbery.—New York Tribune.

GENERAL NEWS.

—A number of mastodon bones have been exhumed near Urbina, Ohio. The first bone found weighed nearly 40 lbs., and measured 38½ inches in length.

—It has been independently discovered by three several astronomers that a new crater has appeared in the moon, and an old one filled up by the eruption from it.

—Jeff. Davis has taken his daughter from her convent school. He was afraid she would turn Catholic, and Jefferson, as everybody knows, is opposed to all manner of secession.

—An elder at a revival, some forty years ago, said to the late Miss Sedgwick, "Oh, I see the very devil in those eyes." "Sir," replied the authoress, "he must be, then, your own reflection in them."

—Musical prodigies are frequently heard of, but few so prodigious as a young lady mentioned by a Western paper, who can play two pieces upon the piano, whistle a third and sing a fourth, all at the same time.

—Mr. David Dudley Field sails for Europe to take part in an International Law Congress which he himself proposed last year, in which it is intended to take measures for the formation of a code of International Law.

—One of of the Japanese troupe in Portland fell a distance of fifteen feet, and struck upon an orchestra chair, while performing in that city. He was rendered insensible, but resumed his performance in a few minutes.

—Base ball talk in certain States is getting as full of slang as the P. R. "Daisy-cutters," "sky-scrapers," "muffins," &c., have become acclimated. "Gobbled the huckleberry" is the last version "of taking it on the fly."

—Rev. Mr. Cuyley, of New York, has been after sermon material at the Saratoga gambling saloons. He found what he was after, but appears to have been more interested than shocked. He proposes a series of sermons on the history of faro.

—It is announced that Charles Reade and Dion Boucicault are writing in conjunction a novel for the Atlantic Monthly for which they are to receive a larger sum than has yet been paid by an American periodical to any author except Mr. Dickens.

—Rarey's will is just published. He leaves the reclaimed "Cruiser" to his brother, with the injunction that the horse is not to be sold nor exhibited for money, nor taken away from the stable which the testator built for him. Useful legacy that.

—It is thought that Sala, who has once before occupied the position, will succeed Jennings as American correspondent of the London Times. George is so imaginative that he might easily write his letters from this country, without crossing the ocean.

—Excavations are going on at Lillebonne, France, at which valuable archæological discoveries are being made. A fragment of a mirror has been found foliated with a thin sheet of pure lead, proving that the Gallo-Romans practiced the art of plating glass.

—Gov. Chamberlain of Maine, it is said, has sent an earnest request to the Government that Admiral Farragut, who is now in the Mediterranean, may be instructed to send a United States ship to transport the suffering Jaffa colonists to their old home in Maine.

—The friends of Fred Douglass, whose name had been mentioned in connection with Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau, assert that he would not under any circumstances accept the office under Mr. Johnson. Douglass is anxious for the retention of Mr. Howard.

—The Imperial family of France is generally disliked in Austria. Napoleon is regarded as the evil genius of the house of Hapsburg. The Empress Elizabeth tried hard to avoid an introduction to Eugenie, but the latter insisted—all in a very polite way, of course, on both sides.

—During last year the postal order system paid all the expenses, and left a surplus in the hands of the Government. It is estimated that the business amounts to $10,000,000. During the present year four hundred more postal offices will be put in operation, making a total of one thousand two hundred and thirty-five.

—Enormous amounts of fossil ivory are brought from New Siberia. In some cases entire mammoths have been discovered, preserved in ice, which not only have the skin and hair in perfect condition, but the fleshy portions also. Dogs and wild beasts have eaten them with avidity, though they must have been frozen to death thousands of years ago.

—General Griffin, now commander of the Fifth Military District, asked and received permission to fix the headquarters of the District temporarily at Galveston, owing to the fact that he has but one staff officer fit for duty, that his surgeons are all sick, and that to proceed to New Orleans under these circumstances, would seem almost like deserting his post in the face of the enemy.

The Chicago Post has a column of "Tea-Table Talk"—listen to it: "A man died in New York the other day of yellow fever—A child in Minnessota has no bones in its legs—A Bostonian walked off the portico of his house while asleep, dislocating his ankle, breaking his leg, and otherwise injuring himself." What delightful subjects for the tea-table—the readers of the Post must have the nightmare horribly.

—The Internal Revenue Department has received information of grave import regarding certain alleged heavy frauds in the whisky revenue in New York and Brooklyn, which implicates among others, five Internal Revenue Collectors. The Metropolitan Board, after investigating the matter, has requested the Department to interfere judicially, which suggestion will probably secure the early arrest and trial of the suspected officials.

ARE YOU BILIOUS!

Multitudes of both sexes will answer this question in the affirmative; for, next to disorders of the stomach, liver complaints are perhaps the most prevalent of all internal diseases. Its usual symptoms are a yellowish tinge in the whites of the eyes, especially near the inner corners, an uneasy or slightly painful sensation in the right side, pain between the shoulder blades, sick headache, lassitude, mental dullness, lack of appetite and irregularity of the bowels. Whoever recognizes this diagnosis as applying to his own condition, may be quite certain that more bile exists in his blood and less passes through his bowels than is expedient for his health, and that his liver requires toning and regulating. One of the special uses of

is to meet just such exigencies as this. Its tonic principle rouses the liver from its torpor, and its aperient element gently relieves the intestinal canal of the accretions consequent upon an insufficient supply of nature's cathartic, the bile. Persons of bilious habit will find it the best safeguard against the attacks to which they are constitutionally predisposed, and should carefully avoid all the ordinary alcoholic stimulants.

CURE OF FISTULA.

DR. KEYSER: I write to thank you for your kindness and scientific management of my disease, for which I called to consult you some time in January last. You will remember that I had a complication of diseases which finally ended in a terrible fistula, which had been advised to "let alone" on account of a harassing cough, which it was feared might fasten on my lungs. I knew that the popular mode of treating diseases like mine was by a cutting operation, which, if successful at all, would naturally throw the disease upon the lungs or some other vital organ, on account of the suddenness of the cure and the immediate check to a discharge which I was constrained to believe was a salutary provision of Nature to get rid of some morbid condition in the system. I feel perfectly satisfied that your method of treatment, purifying to the system, and local applications to the fistulous part, must cure. If anything could, without cutting, which I find it did, and I am happy to report myself well in every particular, with sounder and better health than I have had for years. I would also add that the applications you made were almost painless, and have left me a new man, with all the energies and vigor of restored health.

Yours, gratefully, C—.

Dr. Keyser's consultation rooms are No. 120 Penn street, from 9 A. M. until 4 P. M.

THE
Central Pacific
RAILROAD,
THE WESTERN HALF OF THE Great National Trunk Line Across the Continent,

Being constructed with the AID AND SUPERVISION OF THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT, is destined to be one of the MOST IMPORTANT AND VALUABLE RAILROADS IN THE WORLD, as it is the sole link of communication between the Pacific Coast and the Great Interior Basin, and the Principal Portion of the Main Stem Line Between the two Oceans.

The present western terminus is at Sacramento, on the navigable waters of the Pacific, but it will ultimately extend from San Francisco across the richest and most populous parts of California, Nevada and Utah, contiguous to all the great Mining Regions of the Far West. The Company are authorized to continue their line eastward until it shall meet and connect with the roads now building east of the Rocky Mountain ranges.

Assuming that they will build and control half the entire distance between San Francisco and the Missouri River, as now seems probable, the United States will have invested in the completion of 865 miles $28,592,000, or at the average rate of $35,000 per mile, not including an absolute grant of 10,000,000 acres of the Public Lands. By becoming a joint investor in the magnificent enterprise, and by waving its first lien in favor of the First Mortgage Bondholders, THE GENERAL GOVERNMENT, IN EFFECT, INVITES THE CO-OPERATION OF PRIVATE CAPITALISTS, and has carefully guarded their interests against all ordinary contingencies.

The Central Pacific Railroad enjoys all the privileges, grants, and subsidies conferred by the Acts of Congress upon the other parts of the through line, and has, in addition several special, exclusive advantages applicable only to the Western Half.

I. The Company has received from the State and chief cities of California, assistance in money, credit, and valuable property, worth over $3,000,000 in gold, in addition to the full benefit of the Government subsidy.

II. The hardest and costliest part of its construction has been successfully overcome within the first 150 miles. In a few weeks the track will be completed entirely across the Sierra Nevadas, after which progress to Salt Lake will be easy and rapid.

III. The local business alone of this road establishes its complete financial success, independently of the vast through traffic which must pass over it. The gross earnings for the months of June and July, upon the 94 miles then open for business, were upward of $297,000 in gold; of which four-fifths were net earnings.

IV. It can have no competition, but will carry, beside its own lucrative local traffic, the whole volume of through business which is shared among its Eastern connections and their branches.

V. The road lies wholly in territory yielding the precious metals, and its revenues are collected in coin. Its rates for transportation are very advantageous, being more than three times those of roads lying east of it; and the ratio of operating expenses is less than 25 per cent. of the gross earnings.

VI. In consequence of the aid it receives from the General Government, from the State of California, and from municipal corporations, the annual interest obligations which the Company are called upon to assume are very light. The net earnings upon an average of about 75 miles, in 1866, were nearly three times the amount of annual interest liabilities to be assumed in building it, and were $150,000 more than the annual interest on the entire amount of First Mortgage Bonds which the Company can issue upon the first 150 miles.

The Company offer for sale, through us, their

First Mortgage Thirty Year, Six per cent. Coupon Bonds,

Principal and Interest payable in Gold Coin, in New York city. They are in sums of $1,000 each, with semi-annual gold coupons attached, and are selling for the present at 95 per cent. and accrued interest from July 1st added, in currency, at which rate they yield nearly Nine per cent. upon the Investment.

These Bonds, authorized by Act of Congress, are issued only as the work progresses, and to the same amount only as the bonds granted by the Government; and represent, in all cases, the first lien upon a completed, equipped, and productive railroad, in which have been invested Government subsidies, stock subscriptions, donations, surplus earnings, etc., and which is worth more than three times the amount of First Mortgage Bonds which can be issued upon it.

The agreement of this Company to pay principal and interest of their Bonds in coin, being made under the Specie Contract Law of California, authorizing and enforcing contracts to pay gold, is legally binding, unlike similar agreements made by companies in States where no such legislative sanction exists.

In these important particulars the Securities of the Central Pacific Company offer an unusual degree of stability and profit combined.

THE FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS OF THIS COMPANY are destined to occupy a prominent place among FIRST CLASS SECURITIES in the money markets of this country and Europe, and will, without doubt, be eagerly sought for, and anxiously dealt in hereafter, at rates materially in advance of the price at which they are now offered.

Having carefully investigated the resources, progress and prospects of the road, and the management of the Company's affairs, we cordially recommend these bonds to Trustees, Executors, Institutions, and others, as an eminently sound, reliable and remunerative form of permanent investment.

BELTING AND PACKING OFFICE OF W. & A. J. PACKARD, Youngstown, Ohio, June 17th, 1867.

Messrs. Burke & Barnes, Pittsburgh, Pa.

GENTLEMEN—We ship you, to-day, by railroad, a safe of your make, for a few repairs. The safe went through the disastrous fire that occurred here on the 6th of March last, burning our store and warehouse, and we are glad to inform you that the papers taken out of the safe after the fire were not harmed in the least. We did not suppose any safe, especially so small a size, could possibly stand such a fire, and when we discovered the papers all safe and sound, we were agreeably disappointed. We will give you an order for a large size safe when we get into our new store. Truly yours,

Monongahela Valley Railroad—Meeting in Birmingham—Report of the Surveyor.

A meeting of the friends of the Monongahela Valley Railroad was held at the Town Hall, in the borough of Birmingham, Tuesday, September 10th, at one o'clock P. M., for the purpose of hearing the report of the Committee on Surveys, appointed at a meeting held at Monongahela City, August 24th.

The meeting was organized by calling Joseph S. Gaston, Esq., of Union township, Washington county, to the chair, and appointing the reporters of the press Secretaries.

The chairman, after thanking the meeting for the honor conferred upon him, in calling him to preside over their deliberations, stated that the present meeting was called for the purpose of hearing the report of the Committee of ten on Surveys, appointed at a meeting held at Monongahela City, Aug. 24th, which adjourned to meet at this time and place and for the purpose above stated.

Dr. Stilly, Surveyor, having reported to the Committee, his report was received by that body and by them presented to the meeting.

THE REPORT.

GENTLEMEN OF THE COMMITTEE: At the public meeting held in the village of Library, on the 10th ult., as those of you who were present will remember, a verbal and partial report was made of the facts brought to light by the survey, so far as it had then progressed.

Since that time the examination of the different routes suggested has been continued, and an instrumental reconnoisance made with the view of ascertaining in advance of a regular location, the relative merits of the several routes supposed to be practicable.

In collecting the facts necessary to form an intelligent opinion, and to arrive at a correct decision as to the claims of the different routes, there are several considerations to be taken into the account and carefully weighed, some of which are closely connected with each other, while others are entirely separate and independent of all the rest.

Among the various elements that enter into the calculation in selecting a proper line for the location of a railway, that of its grades holds a very prominent and important place. Although the question of the steepest grade admissable on a railroad is not one of practicability as is often supposed, but only one of comparative economy.

Locomotive engines can be made to ascend grades of almost unlimited steepness by a proportionate increase of their power and adhesion to the rail, but their usefulness as a motive power becomes less and less as the grades over which they are required to pass become more and more steep.

The more recent improvements in the construction of locomotive engines have greatly lessened the objection to steep grades. Still, as it costs nearly twice as much to carry a load on a railroad with an ascending grade of 30 feet to the mile, as to carry it on a level route, it is obvious that this consideration will justify large expenditures in excavations, embankments, tunnels, viaducts, &c., with the view of reducing the grades of the road.

But on the other hand this principle may be carried to excess. These great expenses for grading should be encouraged only when full or maximum loads are to be constantly carried at high rates of speed as on the great and leading lines of transit and traffic.

Much steeper grades than would be otherwise allowable may be adopted on short roads where full loads are not often carried, and on which the trains for public convenience are required to go often, and therefore generally go light. The engine may be able to draw 400 tons on a level road and may seldom have more than 100 tons to draw. In such cases the true economy is not to go to too great expense in order to reduce the grades, or to make a very level road on which the engine could do a great deal more than would be likely to be required of them.

The enormous expenditures sometimes made to form a perfect road, as to its grades, have been too great to pay interest on the cost of construction, owing to the limited amount of travel and traffic on them, and have thus had a tendency to discourage the construction of roads of a steeper grade, which would have been really profitable, and on which a small diminution of the speed of the train would compensate for quite a steep grade.

The amount of capital expended in grading a road is seldom less than ten times the cost of locomotive power, and as the locomotive power forms only about one-third of the working expenses of the road, and only a part of this, say one-half, is likely to be affected by the grades, so we see that only one-sixth of the whole working expenses of the road can be saved by making the grades entirely perfect, a very small compensation for the interest of the extra capital, unless the transportation on it is certain to be continued, regular and very heavy.

While it cannot be disguised, indeed it need not be, that the grades on all the routes we have been examining, or on any overland route from Pittsburgh to Monongahela City, cannot be made so perfect as on a line strictly following the course of the Monongahela river through all its wide meanderings, yet there are other considerations to be taken into account which are of quite as much importance in determining the proper location of the road, in order to meet the wants of the public, as a thoroughfare of trade and traffic, and of much more importance to its stockholders in the way of furnishing an adequate return for the investment of capital in its stock.

As stated at the last meeting of the Committee, the grade of the Coal Hill tunnel will be 55 feet per mile, and the length of the tunnel 1,300 yards, from the western end of the tunnel to Provost's mill, on Saw Mill Run, a distance of four miles from the city, the grade would be 37 feet per mile, and from the same point to the summit dividing the waters of Saw Mill Run and the Pine Fork of Peters' Creek, on the lands of James Higbee, the average grade will be 39 feet per mile, adopting at the summit a through cut of 30 feet in depth and 266 yards in length.

Although it is practicable to pass this summit by a through cut of moderate dimensions by adopting the grades before mentioned, yet the grades of both Saw Mill Run and the Pine Fork could be much reduced, and some trestle work dispensed with, by tunneling the summit for a distance of six hundred yards, and sound policy would indicate that such a course should be adopted.

At this summit the two routes, known as the Library and Pine Fork routes, diverge, and from that point to their re-union again, at Findleyville, the grades on each route are about equal, averaging fifty-five feet per mile with the cut on the summit and forty-seven with the tunnel.

From Findleyville to Monongahela City, by any route we have examined, and I have no doubt by any that is at all practicable, in order to pass from the waters of Peter's Creek to the Monongahela river, a tunnel is indispensable. The route by way of Barr Hill, Froman's Run, and Mingo Creek, will require a tunnel eight hundred yards in length in order to secure a grade of eighty feet per mile from the southern end of the tunnel via Froman's Run to Mingo Creek, from which point the grades will be very light to Monongahela City.

The next most important consideration to be kept in mind in selecting a proper location, is its direction. This embraces both the general course of the line and also those minor deviations from straight lines, called curves, which are necessary evils on all railways.

From the great cost of the superstructure of a railroad, and the continual expense of keeping it in repair, it is highly desirable that it should be as straight and consequently as short as possible. And as the earthwork of a railroad costs almost nothing for repairs, while those of its perishable superstructure are very great, and proportioned to its length, as is also the cost in fuel, wages of employees, wear and tear of the rolling stock, it is obvious that it would be advantageous to make large expenditures in order to lessen the length of the road, and consequently to diminish the annual working expenses of it.

On the different routes we have examined there is no decided preference to be given to either of them so far as the curves are concerned, except in one instance, at the south end of Bar Hill tunnel, where an abrupt change in the direction of the valley renders it necessary to locate a curve in an undesirable position.

In regard to the general direction this will be best understood by an exact statement of the distance from Pittsburgh to Monongahela City by each route.

This distance by the Library route via Findleyville and Mingo Creek is 21 miles 520 feet.

By the Pine Fork route also by way of Findleyville and Mingo Creek is 21¼ miles 80 feet.

A route has also been examined from the vicinity of Findleyville to the Monongahela river at Limetown, with the view of passing from Peter's Creek to the river by means of a tunnel on the coal level. This tunnel would require to extend 1800 yards in length, and would have a descending grade from the creek to the river of 80 feet per mile. The entire distance by this route is 19¾ miles 170 feet.

The bridge structures on any of the routes examined, will be neither numerous nor expensive. A double span of Howe's truss bridge, costing $3,000, will meet any requirement of this kind on the route.

Another very important element in the choice of a location for a railroad is the mineral resources likely to be developed and brought into market by the opening of the road, these resources furnishing often the largest item of transportation in their freight carriage, and offering the greatest inducements for the investment of capital in its stock.

As you are all aware, the bituminous coal fields of Allegheny and Washington counties constitute a very large proportion of their mineral wealth. Their frequent outcroppings in nearly every valley offer great facilities for drainage and ventilation, as well as cheap processes of mining.

Of the different routes examined and found to be practicable, that one by way of Pine Fork and Limetown possesses decided advantages, both in the extent of the coal fields developed and facilities for shipping, being for the most part capable of location below the coal level.

Since the last meeting of the committee we have examined and made a survey of a route from the Birmingham Station of the Pittsburgh, Columbus and Cincinnati Railroad via South Pittsburgh, Birmingham, East Birmingham and Brownstown, known as the Beck's Run route, and connecting with the Library and Piny Fork routes, previously surveyed at Provost's mill, on Saw Mill Run, thence by the East Branch of Saw Mill Run, passing from the waters of Saw Mill Run to those of Lick Run at a point near the Brownsville road, known as Scott's Summit, and connecting at Mrs. Curry's, with the former survey of Lick Run, thence by Lick Run to its junction with Peter's Creek, thence up Peter's Creek to Gaston's mill, thence connecting again with the Piny Fork route by way of Limetown and Monongahela river to Monongahela city.

The entire distance by this route to Monongahela city is 21¼ miles and 537 feet.

This route if connected with the Mingo Creek route at Findleyville will make the entire distance 23¼ miles and 547 feet.

In order to pass from the waters of Beck's Run to Saw Mill Run and locate the tunnel on the coal level the grade will be 51 feet per mile from Birmingham Station to the coal level near Thomas Briggs' house.

From that point to the entrance of the tunnel at Scott's Summit the grade will be 51 feet 9 inches per mile, and from the South end of Scott's mill tunnel to Peter's Creek via Lick Run will require a grade of 52.8 feet per mile.

Adopting these grades the length of the tunnel connecting Beck's and Saw Mill Run will be 667 yards in length, and that of Scott's Summit between the Saw Mill and Lick Run waters will be 247 yards in length; the first tunnel will be on the coal level, the second about 140 feet above it.

By this route the location of the road will be below the coal level from Birmingham Station to the north end of the first tunnel, near Mr. Briggs' house; thence on the same level with it through the tunnel, and from the south end of it to a point on Lick Run, near 'Squire Hugh McElheny's residence, above the coal field, at which point it will pass below and continue either below or upon the same level throughout the line.

The survey of this route has brought to light the fact that it will be practicable to pass the summit at Scott's into the waters of Lick Run by means of a tunnel 880 yards in length, from the Coal Hill and Saw Mill Run route.

To accomplish this it will be necessary to adopt a grade of fifty feet per mile from the south end of the Coal Hill tunnel to the north end of the tunnel at Scott's hill.

A line located on this route would rise above the coal level at Provost's Mill, and fall below it again at its outcrop on the farm of H. B. Wallace, on Lick Run.

The distance from Pittsburgh to Monongahela City by this route is less than any other heretofore examined, being 19¾ miles and 1,104 feet.

On motion the report was received and adopted.

Burgess Salisbury, of Birmingham, being called upon to address the meeting, respectly declined, saying that he came there to be instructed, and not as an instructor. That so far as Birmingham was concerned, he was not authorized to say what action the citizens would take in regard to the proposed railroad, but he had no hesitancy in saying that as soon as the ball was set in motion Birmingham would do its part in aiding the project.

Mr. Ihmsen, of East Birmingham, was called on, but declined, saying he could not add anything to what Mr. Salisbury had said.

Mr. Trunick said that he had been informed that Birmingham was deeply interested in the construction of the proposed railroad, and if such was the case, he would like to see that interest manifest itself, and hoped they would not wait for the ball to be set in motion, but that they would start it rolling themselves.

Mr. Kirk said that it was to the interest of every citizen in Birmingham to have this railroad constructed at an early day. The manufacturing interests of the borough demanded its construction, and he hoped they would put their hands to the wheel and by a united effort push the matter forward.

Dr. Stilly said that the farmers residing along the line of the proposed railroad were abundantly able to construct it themselves, and that its construction would benefit them as much if not more than other classes of citizens. That it would not cost over $50,000 per mile to build the road and furnish it with sufficient rolling stock to do the business for several years.

On motion, the meeting adjourned.

☞ HOFF'S MALT EXTRACT BEVERAGE OF HEALTH—Prescribed by Physicians in New York and in the Western States. It is a well known fact that most of American physicians prescribe this healthful beverage as a tonic as well as a pleasant remedy for dyspeptics, debilitated, consumptives, convalescents, invalids, and weak persons, especially in consequence of the recommendation of the New York Academy of Medicine; with the names of the Professors Willard Parker, Van Buren, James R. Wood, of New York City; we name also the well-known Dr. T. Comstock, of St. Louis, who recommends it to his patients in his practice. The eminent physicians, Drs. Crane and White, of New York, wrote to Mr. Hoff, 542 Broadway, New York, the following letter: "We have used Hoff's Malt Extract in practice, and the results have been such as to fully justify the claims made for it; we feel certain that it is destined to supply a want long felt."

Dr. Blecken, of Redwing, Min., wrote: "I saw by the papers that the genuine Hoff's Malt Extract has been introduced in America; this is an acquisition of the greatest importance for consumptives. My uncle, M. D. Sandersleben, (Prussian Counsellor of Medicine,) wrote me about its wonderful efficacy; he had prescribed it at St. Paul and obtained the best results; now I wish to try it with one of my medical friends, Dr. Caine, who is suffering from pulmonary consumption, with spasmodic asthma;" please, there ore, (follows order). Sold at Druggists and Grocers. Price 60c. per single bottle; or $6.50 per dozen.

The improvements are a large hued log house, with nine rooms, a good cellar; a frame bank barn, 48x76, with the best of stabling. Two apple and one peach orchard. The whole farm is under a high state of cultivation; the fencing is all No. 1; the soil is good, and is well watered; about 200 acres cleared, the remainder in good white oak timber. This property is offered at the low price of fifty dollars per acre. Possession immediately.

Also, a valuable Garden Farm, containing 30 acres, situated in Elizabeth township, Allegheny county, Pa., on the Youghiogheny river, and near Elrod's Station on the Connellsville Railroad, about nineteen miles from the city. The improvements are a two-story brick house with six rooms, hall running through the house, with cellar; a No. 1 barn and other outbuildings. Abundance of the best fruits, of all varieties. Churches, Schools and Mills very convenient. Persons wishing to engage in gardening would do well to call and purchase quickly.

Also, a Farm of 440 acres, situated in West Wheatfield township, Indiana county, Pa., about 3½ miles from Blairsville, on the Pennsylvania Railroad. The improvements are—First, a two-story frame house, with five rooms, a large frame barn, 48x76, corn crib, carriage house, a good stone spring house and wood house. Second, a two-story log house, a large frame barn, 40x70, a 1½ story frame spring house, and other outbuildings. The fencing is all good, abundance of limestone on the place, and coal only a short distance. Convenient to Churches, Schools, Mills, &c. I am authorized to sell this property very cheap and on easy terms.

Also, An excellent Farm of 130 acres, of which 95 acres are under cultivation, situated in Christian county, Illinois. Improvements—a new frame dwelling containing 5 rooms; about 400 choice fruit trees, good fencing, &c. It lies within 2 miles of the Illinois Central R. R. Will be sold on reasonable terms. City property taken in part exchange if desired.

Also, a Farm of 312 acres in Penn township, Westmoreland county, 230 acres cleared and under cultivation, 82 acres of first-rate white oak and other timber, 2 dwelling houses, 1 of them 2 stories, the other 1 story, with a tenant house, with a first-rate Steam Sawmill in good running order; young orchard of grafted fruit. The land is rolling; every acre is tillable, with lime stone soil and subsoil, with never failing springs; within two hundred rods of the Penna. Central Railroad; 25 miles east of Pittsburgh, and three miles west of Greensburg. This farm is pleasantly and eligibly situated in a good neighborhood; every acre is underlaid with coal. The title is good.

Also, one of the best farms in Young township, Indiana county, Pa., four miles from Western Pennsylvania Railroad, at Livermore Station, containing 200 acres—125 cleared and under No. 1 fencing, the residue in good timber. The improvements are two frame dwellings, containing eight rooms each; a large bank barn, 60x80 feet; wagon shed, corn crib, and other outbuildings; a large quantity of vegetables; large spring of excellent water near the door. Five acres of orchard of choice varieties of fruit; four foot vein of coal, (now open,) under all the land, and abundance of limestone. It is a good thriving neighborhood, convenient to churches, schools, mills, &c., which I am authorized to sell very low and on good terms.

Also, a Farm of 82 acres in Elizabeth township, Allegheny county, Pa., near the line of the Pittsburgh & Connellsville Railroad. Improvements are a log house, weather-boarded; frame bank barn, orchard of fifty bearing apple trees, &c. This property will be sold cheap.

Also, 40 acres in Derry township, Westmoreland county, Pa., within four miles of Blairsville, and three miles of two stations on the Pa. R. R. The improvements are a new frame dwelling house and outbuilding; a new steam saw and grist mill, with two run of burrs, two bolting cloths, and all the necessary fixtures, and a young orchard of choice fruit trees. The whole tract is underlaid with a five feet vein of coal, now opened, and an abundance of limestone. This property will be sold very low, if applied for soon.

The Uniontown Methodist Conference.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 9, 1867.

MONDAY'S SESSION.

The Conference opened as usual. A number of committees reported. According to reports, the Sabbath School cause is doing good work in all the churches, and this Conference was shown as doing an extensive Home Mission work. All the Missions are reported in a prosperous condition. The churches generally responded nobly to the calls of the Conference for the needed funds to carry on this important part of the work. A number of the Sabbath Schools did fine work in this direction during the past year.

The report of the Committee on Statistics shows a net gain over last year of nearly one thousand members. This is certainly encouraging. There were a number of new churches erected in the district and a number more are in process of erection. The Ministers, generally speaking, were liberally supported during the past year, but not as well as they should have been. Upwards of forty-five thousand dollars were appropriated to the various enterprises of the Church during the year, and but $13,800 to pastoral support.

The Committee on Adrian College report it as in a more prosperous condition than heretofore. The fall session is just opening with fine prospects. Its patronage is constantly increasing, as its superior advantages become known to the public. A very encouraging letter was addressed to the Conference by Prof. G. B. McElroy, showing that its success exceeds the most sanguine expectations of its warmest friends.

The Board of Education is supporting twelve young men at Adrian, who are preparing for the Christian Ministry, several of them from this Conference.

In order to complete the business of the session by noon to-morrow, an evening session was held, which disposed of a great deal of work. Among other things several ministers were elected to preach on the following subjects at the next session, to wit: The "Deaconship in the Church," "The Divinity of Christ," "Importance of Ministerial Education," "Spread of the Gospel," and "Temperance," &c.

TUESDAY'S SESSION.

The Mission Treasurer reported a little deficit in meeting the claims of the missionaries. He was instructed to pay each his pro rata share of what is on hand and the balance out of the first money that comes into the treasury.

The missionary appointments and appropriations are about the same as they were last year.

After a variety of miscellaneous business, a vote of thanks was given to the kind people of Uniontown for their very hospitable entertainment of the members of the Conference, the Committee on Pastoral relations was announced ready to report. The report was adopted after a few slight alterations.

After an earnest prayer to the Throne of Divine Grace for guidance and success during the coming year, the Conference adjourned to meet at New Brighton, Pa., on the first Wednesday in September, 1868.

Prof. Sherritt, of Pittsburgh, was at the Conference as a visitor, and enlivened us frequently with sweet music on a fine little organ. Thanks to him, for a clever fellow is he.

Thus ended a very pleasant session of conference. May the ensuing year be a grand success.

The following is a list of appointments by the Pittsburgh Conference of the Methodist Church, the labors of which have just closed.

A Card from Justice Mitchel.

EDITORS GAZETTE—My attention has been called to an article in Monday's GAZETTE treating of the misconduct of magistrates generally, in which the name of Justice Mitchel, of Lawrenceville, is held up as the particular example. Your article is unjust to me as an old citizen of fifty-three years standing in this community.

The case that you alluded to, in which Michael Garvey was defendant and Ann McLaughlin prosecutrix, was never before me. As I am informed, the records of the Court will show that four cases in which Ann McLaughlin was prosecutrix, were sent up by a City Alderman and heard by Judge Stowe on Saturday. You are careful to make no allusion to that circumstance, nor do you say what disposition the Judge made of the Alderman's costs.

The case that I sent up was the information of Frank McLaughlin, charging six persons (in one information) with threatening to kill him and his family and burn his house, and that one of the defendants had a gun in his hand at the time he was in conjunction with the others, making the threats. You seem to be horror-struck at the amount of the bill of costs—$53 70—and state that Judge Stowe ordered my costs not to be paid.

The amount of costs is stated in the information as gross—as is the practice among Aldermen and Justices. The costs of the officers and witnesses are of course included in the bill.

Though I did not consider this case a petty surety of the peace case, and supposed I was honestly entitled to some compensation, and that the officers and witnesses were also entitled to their fees—yet, if, as you say, the Court orders my costs not to be paid, I shall lose them with perfect satisfaction.

This is the first surety of the peace case which I have sent up to the Court, and in other cases where parties came before me to make cross informations for surety of the peace, I have discouraged them from doing so and advised them to be friends without costs, and my character as a peace-maker will compare favorably with that of any citizen in the community.

LAWRENCE MITCHEL,
Justice of the Peace, Second ward, Lawrenceville.

Allegheny Temperance League.

The members of the Allegheny Temperance League held their regular meeting last evening, in Rev. Dr. McMillan's U. P. Church, corner of Sandusky street and Gay alley, Allegheny City, President Rev. Col Clarke in the Chair, and Secretaries W. G. Warren and W. J. Freeborn officiating.

The meeting opened with prayer by Rev. Clarke, after which the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

The Executive Committee, through Secretary W. G. Warren, reported progress in matter of out-of-door meetings.

The report was laid over until next meeting.

Rev. Dr. McMillan being called, made a striking and forcible speech, calling upon Christians to see the great and growing interest that is now being taken in this good cause, and telling of the effects of intemperance. He thought that the large and intelligent audience present was a proof that the cause is gaining ground.

By request, Prof. M. F. Eaton, of Philadelphia, read a selection from a temperance paper, called the "Destruction Railroad."

Rev. A. K. Bell asked for information as to what the Executive Committee had done for the good of the cause abroad. The question was answered by Mr. McGonnigle and others, who stated that the side issues and questions before the people were all being properly looked after.

Mr. John D. Bailey, of Pittsburgh, being present, was called upon and addressed the meeting as to the success of the cause in Pittsburgh and vicinity.

On motion adjourned, with benediction by Rev. McMillen.

The League choir enlivened the exercises by giving some of their most excellent and exquisite music. This was one of the largest and most intelligent meetings ever held in our sister city, going to show that the temperance people are waking up to their interests.

Central Board of Education.

The Central Board of Education met on Tuesday evening, September 10th, 1867.

Present: Messrs. Crawford, Getty, Lowe, McAuley, McCook, Nobbs, Sergeant, Wilson and Brush, President.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

The monthly reports of the Principal of the High School, and of the Secretary were read and ordered to be received and filed.

A communication from A. Vander Naillen, Teacher of Drawing in High School, tendering his resignation. Read and accepted.

Mr. John Earle was nominated and elected to fill the vacancy.

Mr. Samuel E. Herron was elected Collector of the Ninth ward vice James Irwin resigned.

On motion an appropriation of $150 was made to each of the Ward Schools and to the Colored School, for the support of Night Schools, said schools to be continued sixty-five nights.

On motion adjourned.

Died for Want of Attention.—Jane McClymonds, a widow lady, in indigent circumstances, who resided at No. 284 Second street, died yesterday under circumstances which led to the belief that she came to her death from want of proper care and attention. Coroner Clawson having been notified of the fact, summoned a jury, who, after a partial examination of the case, adjourned until this evening.

Sudden Death.—Charles Voight, a resident of Minersville, aged thirty years, while walking along Second street near Fulton, yesterday, had a sudden attack of hemorrhage at the lungs. He was carried into a house near by, where he died in a few moments afterward. Coroner Clawson was summoned, and held an inquest on the body. The jury rendered a verdict of death from natural causes.

Larceny of Beef.—L. A. Stewart made an information before Alderman Humbert yesterday, against J. C. Graham, charging him with stealing twenty-seven pounds of beef, valued at four dollars. He alleges that Graham came into stall No. 27, in the Diamond market, during his absence, and took the beef, and that he found Graham in a beer saloon, in Diamond alley, with the beef in his possession. Graham was committed for trial.

Base Ball.—The Enterprise and Lincoln base ball clubs played their second game of a series for the championship of Western Pennsylvania, on Monday, September 9th, at the Union Skating Park, in Allegheny. The game was witnessed by a large number of spectators, including many of the fairer sex. At the end of the eighth inning the game was called, the score standing 43 to 31 in favor of the champions.

Assault and Battery.—George Moffatt appeared before Alderman Strain yesterday, and made information against John Flinn, charging him with assault and battery. The parties reside on Boyd's Hill, and it appears got into a fight, when Flinn struck Maffatt and knocked him down. Flinn was arrested and held for a hearing.

Larceny.—Andrew Jackson appeared before Alderman McMasters yesterday, and made information against James A. Johnson and Elizabeth Johnson, charging them with larceny. It appears that the parties all occupy a room at the corner of Penn and Hand streets, and Jackson alleges that he left his pocket-book, containing $6.50, lying on the table while he went out of the house for a few moments, and when he returned it was gone. The men are both "culled" gentlemen, and the woman is white. She claims to be the wife of Johnson. A warrant was issued for the arrest of the Johnsons and placed in the hands of an officer, who brought them to time. They were held for a hearing.

A Smasher.—Ellen Wath, a resident of Elm street, Sixth ward, if reports be true, is a regular "smasher," and did a "smashing" business yesterday, to the great detriment of Ann E. Jemmer's windows and dishes, and to the inconvenience and terror of Jane herself. It appears from the statement of Jane that Ellen came to her house yesterday with an axe, broke the windows, and then entered the house and smashed her crockery ware. For this offense Jane appeared before Alderman Taylor and made two informations against Ellen for surety of the peace and for malicious mischief. A warrant was issued for her arrest.

G. A. R.—Post No. 3, Grand Army of the Republic, hold their regular Literary meeting this evening, at the headquarters on Fourth street. Gen. A. L. Pearson, S. V. C. Department of Pennsylvania, has been chosen orator of the occasion. All members of the organization are invited to be present.

Not Successful.—An attempt was made yesterday morning, about one o'clock, by the "knucks" to force the front door of the store of Chas. Fiatkowsky & Sons, No. 138 Smithfield street. They were interrupted, however, in their little game, and postponed it indefinitely.

Committed.—John Duboug was committed for Court by Justice Lipp on a charge of assault and battery preferred by Michael Hahn.

Henry Stark, on oath of his wife, Tillie Stark, was committed for a hearing on Thursday, by Alderman Mullin, of Allegheny, for surety of the peace.

There will be a match game of base ball in the Union Park, Allegheny, on Thursday, afternoon, September 12th, at half past two o'clock, between the Champion Junior Club, Resolute, and the Olympic Club.

These clubs are very well matched, and the game will prove very exciting.

Runaway.—A horse, under saddle and without rider, dashed down Fifth street yesterday as though his life depended on the speed he should made. He was caught before doing any damage.

RIVER NEWS.

There is no change to note in river matters at this point. Business continues suspended so far as steamboating is concerned, with the exception of what is being done by one or two boats on the Monongahela. Heavy rains are reported up the Allegheny on Monday night, and we had some rain here, but not enough to have any influence on our rivers. The weather yesterday was cloudy and remarkably cool.

There is nothing doing at the main landing, with the exception that some of the boats are being repainted and undergoing repairs. The Selma, Captain Thomas Rogers' new boat, is about completed, and Captain Moore is progressing finely with his new boat for the Pittsburgh and Parkersburg trade.

TENDER OF SYMPATHY AND SUPPORT.—The Captains' Association of St. Louis, at a recent meeting, adopted the following resolutions in regard to the new bill of lading trouble here:

OFFICE ST. LOUIS MARINE CHARITABLE ASSOCIATION, September 2, 1867.

"WHEREAS, This Association has been apprised of the fact that the steamboat owners of the city of Cincinnati are at present opposed to certain members of the Chamber of Commerce of that city in an effort to place in general use a new form of bill lading; and,

"WHEREAS, This Association has examined said bill lading, and found the same bill to be neither unreasonable nor unjust, and calculated to impose upon the common carrier every and all responsibility that in equity and justice he is entitled and expected to bear; and,

"WHEREAS, The same bill lading is now and has been for the last seven months in use on all boats plying in every direction from the port of St. Louis; therefore, be it

"Resolved, That we tender to the Cincinnati steamboat owners our hearty support in this effort to obtain such protection for their steamboat property as is justly their due, and is absolutely necessary to foster and sustain that great branch of commerce of our inland marine."

J. P. FITZGERALD,
Secretary.

CANAL AROUND DES MOINES RAPIDS.—The bids for the contract to built the National Canal around the Des Moines rapids, on the Mississippi River, at Davenport, took place on Wednesday of last week. The number of bids reached twenty-eight, and ranged from $2,200,000, the highest down to $711,000, the lowest. Mr. Hanigan & Son, of Mount Vernon, Ohio, are the successful bidders, being the lowest. At their bid the work will be done for considerable less money than the government estimates. They commence immediately the job of removing the rock from the Rock Island Rapids, as the water has now sufficiently subsided to enable them to begin operations. They will use a ponderous chisel weighing 8000 lbs, which will be let drop from a height of thirty feet. In some experiments with it the other day it is reported that it penetrated the rock four feet in one blow. The statement is a little tough, unless the rock happened to be very soft at the point of concussion.

The work of excavating the canal will be commenced forthwith, and be pushed to completion with energy and celerity. This improvement will be of immense benefit to the navigation of the Mississippi river.

The St. Louis Republican, of Friday, says The levee, at an early hour yesterday morning, was the grand theatre of a most intense excitement, occasioned by the expected arrival of Mike McCoole. At the appointed time the foot of Carr street was the center of an eager and expectant crowd, and, as the ferry boat approached the wharf, cheer after cheer was sent up to welcome the arrival of the victorious champion. When the landing was made, a carriage drawn by four horses, which was seated the champion, was driven ashore, and the procession, headed by a band of music, started for Fourth street.

We copy the following from the Shreveport News, of the 31st ult: The Warren Belle, Capt. Hayes in command, came in Wednesday night and will leave this evening. Two miles below here a heavy branch passed into the boat where Engineer Theodore Thompson was on duty; he saw his critical situation and could have extricated himself, but to preven fatal danger to passengers he remained at his post and received a fatal stroke, from which he died in a few hours, enduring the greatest pain without a murmur.

The following is the form of the bill of lading which went into effect at New Orleans on the 1st inst. It will be observed that it is much more stringent than that adopted by the Cincinnati C. C. M. Association:

Received, New Orleans, ——, 1867, from —— in apparent good order, on board steamer ——, to be delivered without unavoidable delay (the dangers of navigation, fire, explosion and collision excepted), unto —— at —— on wharfboat or landing, ten feet from water's edge, where carrier's responsibility shall cease (without reclamation for breakage, damage or loss of contents), they paying freight at card rates, or —— and charges —— marks and articles as per margin with privilege of lightering, re-shipping as shippers' agent. Freight earned to the point of re-shipment to be collected as charges without recourse. Signed in duplicate by master, clerk or agent.

The Emma No. 3 arrived Saturday from New Orleans, having made the most profitable trip of the whole year. The Starlight arrived from Memphis yesterday. She reports her people in good health all the way up. The Cottage No. 2 was robbed on Friday evening, while lying at the wharf, of the contents of two trunks, belonging to a lady passenger, the vest pocket of the steward, containing $34, the money drawer of the office, containing $109, and an envelope containing $94. The envelope was afterward found lying on the floor of the cabin unopened, having been thrown away by the thieves as valueless. Two negroes have been arrested on suspicion. The Wild Duck will follow the Rob Roy to St. Louis, and the Annie will will follow the Minnesota to Memphis.

LOSS OF NORTHERN LINE STEAMER BURLINGTON.—It is so unusual for Northern Line steamers to encounter accident or meet with bad fortune, that the announcement of the loss of the Burlington caused general surprise and regret. She was bound from this port to St. Paul with a fair freight and passenger trip. A dispatch received from Capt. Green, by President Rhodes, says, the accident—striking a snag—occurred two miles above Wabashaw, and she must be now lying opposite Reed's Landing. No lives were lost. The bow of the boat lies in three feet of water and stern in ten feet. The first dispatch announced the Burlington a total loss. She is badly bogged. None of the Northern Line steamers are insured. The Burlington is in her her third year, was built at Wheeling, and cost about $60,000. Captain T. B. Rhodes left by rail last evening for the scene of the disaster, and will arrive there Tuesday. Although the Northern Line cannot at this time well spare any of their boats, the Burlington's place will speedily be refilled.—St. Louis Democrat 9th.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, September 10, 1867.

Gold declined early in the day to 143⅝, but rallied to 144¼, and closed at 143⅝. The transactions at the board are heavy, and operators manifest a disposition to buy largely for a rise. So long as the Government continues to sell its daily receipts, the advance will be checked, while an increased shipping demand would advance the premium at once by taking all the surplus gold from the market. Government bonds are very fluctuating, and Five Twenties of 1865 and 1867, as well as Seven Thirties, have declined about ⅜ to ½ per cent., while 1862's advanced ½; there being a corner operation in these bonds. Government securities are not likely to decline much more, even during a period of currency surplus; the demand for investment from the interior will cease, and a declining tendency will bring out a large number of sellers, especially the Seven Thirties.

The stock market opened weak, but closed strong, with an improvement of ½ to ¾ per cent. Hudson river advanced suddenly, 122½, an advance of 6¼ per cent., but closed at 129¾. Mining shares are dull. Columbia Oil Company changed hands to-day in small amounts—$9 is the asking price, but $7⅞ is bid. Triumph Oil Company is held at over $2 per share. This Company is in excellent condition at present, and its prospects for the future are exceedingly encouraging.

The New York stock quotations to-day, as received by Mr. P. R. Mertz, were as follows: Gold, 143⅝; Eighty-one bonds, 111¾; Five Twenties, 1862, 114¼; Five Twenties, 1864 109¾; Five Twenties, 1865, 111¼; 5-20 Consols, 108¼; Seven Thirties, 107; Ten Forties, 99⅝. Stocks—Erie Railroad, 69⅞; Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 88¾; Chicago and Rock Island, 104¼; Chicago and Northwestern, 46⅝; Chicago and Northwestern preferred, 70¾; Fort Wayne Railroad, 106; Michigan Southern Railroad, 82¾; New York Central, 106½; Reading, 103¼; Western Union Telegraph Co. 43½; Ohio and Mississippi Certificates, 28¼. Mining shares—Corydon, 1,20; Gregory, 6,08; Quartz Hill, 1,65; Smith & Paramalee, 5,25; Quicksilver, 27¼. Merchants Union Express Co., 19.

S. T. SMITH, Auditor.

—We have received an officially corrected statement of the public debt of the United States on the 1st of September, by which it appears that the clerical error in the first statement occurred in the amount of debt bearing currency interest in the three year compound interest notes by not deducting the amount that had matured, $12,672,730 from the total amount then outstanding, viz: $91,512,350, which should have been $78,839,620. The total amount outstanding on the 1st of August, matured and not matured, was $114,857,850. Of this amount there was redeemed during August $23,345,520—leaving total outstanding September 1st, 1867, of $91,512,350. This correction leaves as the debt outstanding, less cash in the Treasury, $2,492,782,865,05, instead of $2,505,556,095,05. There was therefore the very large reduction of $18,523,080,96 made in the total debt less cash in the Treasury, since August 1st, instead of $5,850,330,96, as has been stated. Our national debt was highest on the 31st of August, 1865, amounting at that date to $2,757,803,686,91. In the twenty four months that have elapsed we have paid off $265,020,821, or a monthly average of over $10,500,000. If this rate of reduction could be kept up in the future, the last dollar of the debt would be paid by July 1, 1887, or in one month less than twenty years.

—There's further trouble reported with the National banks. The Farmers and Citizens' National Bank of Brooklyn, New York, having failed for thirty days to maintain a reserve of lawful money, equal to 15 per cent. of its circulation and deposits, as required by law, has been put into the hands of a receiver, and will go into liquidation. This bank was established in 1857, and 1865 organized on the National bank system; capital, 500,000, after having failed in 1867 as a State institution. It was not well based on credit, and its failure now excites little surprise.

The First National Bank of Kingston, N. J., is in trouble in consequence of the default to the amount of 190,000 of its President, and is now under examination by an agent of the Treasury Department. It is stated that the bank has sufficient resources to cover all its depositors; and it is possible that the loss of capital may be made good and the bank continue its business. The capital is $200,000.

—The Boston Bulletin of Saturday, has the following: New England buyers of boots and shoes have been in town in considerable numbers this week, and some small orders from the West have been received. But the bulk of Western trade is about six weeks late. At the South the prevalence of yellow fever has seriously interfered with business. The poorest grades of goods are a trifle lower, while the better remain firm. Manufacturers are pursuing a very conservative course, and later comers into the market will probably have to pay higher prices than are ruling at present. It is said that sole leather is now sold for three cents per pound less than the cost of buying and tanning hides. The transactions for the current week have been larger than those of last, and dealers generally expect a fairly brisk business during September and October. People can do without whisky; but in New England, at least, people must have boots and shoes.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET

CRUDE—The market was very dull to-day, under the influence of unfavorable advices from Europe, and so far as we could learn, there was but a single sale, 200 bbls "Smith's Ferry" on spot, at 12c. It was reported, towards evening, that there was an offer to sell for all 1867, seller's option, at 11c, which, compared with last week, shows a decline of fully one cent per gallon. Spot oil is held at 12 to 12½c, while for March and April, 1868, 13½c may be given as the nominal quotation. Upon the whole, the market was exceedingly dull, and unless the foreign markets improve, and that, too, very soon, a decline in prices seems almost inevitable. Private telegrams from Oil City reported crude nominal at $4.25 per bbl at that point.

REFINED—The market for bonded oil was also very dull to-day, and with Antwerp reported at 46 francs, buyers were not very numerous. We can report a sale of 500 bbls for all this month, buyer's option, at 32c, and 500 for October, same option, at 32c. Later in the day it was reported that a sale of 3000 barrels, for all September, had been made in Philadelphia, at 31c, which is a decline of from 2 to 2½ cents per gallon, compared with last Friday and Saturday's prices. October at 32c, also shows a depreciation of 2 to 2½c, as last Saturday there were sales for that month at 34 to 34½c.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, September 10, 1867.

The most noticeable feature in the general markets is the upward tendency in Flour and Grain, which is owing to the advance both east and west. Provisions, also, have taken a turn upward, while the advance in gold will enhance the value of imported goods, particularly Sugars and Coffee. In other articles, of less importance, there are no changes, one way or the other, worthy of special notice.

GRAIN—Wheat is scarce and in demand, and prime Penna and Ohio Red sells readily at $2,25. Rye is dull and drooping; we now quote at $1,10@1,15—it is only worth $1,20 in Philadelphia. Oats firm and scarce, and we now quote at 53c@55c, on track, and 58@60c, in store. Corn is very firm—sales on Monday at $1,12, but to-day holders generally are asking $1,14@$1,15 for prime Yellow. Barley is in demand, and good to prime Spring is selling at from $1,10@1,15.

FLOUR—The market is steady, with a continued fair local demand, and prices are tending upward. We continue to quote at $10@10,50 for Spring Wheat; $11,00@11,50 for Winter Wheat; and $13@14 for fancy brands. The stock is pretty well reduced, and the arrivals continue comparatively light. Rye Flour is quoted at $7,75@8.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is firm, with a continued fair jobbing demand, and prices are still tending upward—15c for Shoulders; 17c for Ribbed and 18c for Clear Sides, and 21½c@22c for Sugar Cured Hams. Lard is firm but dull but firm at 13½c. Mess Pork has advanced to $25.

BUTTER—Prime fresh Butter, in pails and firkins, is in demand, and sells readily at 25c. There seems to be no demand whatever for common packed.

EGGS—Prime fresh packed Eggs are scarce and in demand, and sell readily at 18c.

GREEN APPLES—Continue very dull, with a supply largely in excess of the demand. Sales in a regular way at $2@3 per bbl.

PEACHES—Continue to meet with a good demand, and we can report regular sales of eastern at $2@2,50 per box, as to quality.

SEEDS—Timothy Seed is in good demand and we can report sales at $2,75. Flaxseed may be quoted at $2,35@2,40. There seems to be no demand for Clover Seed.

HAY—Is quiet but unchanged—regular sales from country wagons at $14 to $18 per ton.

ALLEGHENY CATTLE MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, September 10, 1867.

CATTLE.

There was a much larger number of Cattle on sale this week than last, being estimated in round numbers at twelve hundred head, and the market was a little sluggish, though prices were pretty well sustained, and there were but few left over unsold. Good cattle were in good demand, and sold without much difficulty at full prices, while common and inferior, as has been the case for some time past, moved slowly and only at low prices. All of the best cattle were taken by the retail trade at prices ranging from 7½ to 7¾ and 8c—the demand for stock cattle is beginning to fall off a little, as is the usually the case at this season of the year, and prices are barely maintained, ranging from 4 to 6c, according to quality and condition. The following sales were reported:

Glass & Lafferty retailed 44 head for French at 4,50 to 7; 41 head to Blew at 4½ to 6¾; 5 bulls for J. H. Glass at 3.10; 1 springer at $51; 3 fresh cows and calves at $65 per head, and 5 extra calves, weighing from 380 to 430 at 6¾ to 7. Hedges & Taylor wholesaled 21 head stockers at 5,30. L. Rothchilds 25 head at 4½@5¾. Haas & Kraus report having handled 120 head at prices ranging from 5½ to 7¼. Jas. McAllister sold 24 head of light Western Reserve stock, for C. A. Thayer, at 5 to 6¼. Rothchilds & Byers 48 head mixed stock at 3.50 to 6,50. M. Verner 21 head at 5 to 7,50, and P. Hartman 26 head at same prices. Marks & Traurman 85 head at 6¼ to 7¾—25 head left over. Hanlon sold 28 head at 5 to 7,15. N. Carr sold 30 head for Dolan at 6¼ to 6¾. Turner sold 35 head at 4 to 6¼. Seymour sold 14 head of fair cattle to Greenwald & Kahn at 6,85. Reed to Kraus & Haas 16 head at 6¾. Beck to same buyers, 16 head at 6¾ to 7¼. J. Kerwin sold 20 head for Hirst at 6, and 19 head for Talbot at 6¾ to 7. Kraus & Haas sold Greenwald & Kahn 18 head at 6 65, and Correll 18 head at 7¼. Greenwald & Kahn retailed 72 head; Hazlewood & Co. 24 head; Arnold 12 head; Myers & Needy 89 head, and there were other small sales, the particulars of which we did not get.

SHEEP AND LAMBS.

There was again a very full supply of Sheep this week, the whole number on sale being estimated at 2800 to 3000 head, and as a consequence, the market was a very dull one, and a large number were left over unsold. The best fat mutton Sheep sold at from $4,10 to $5 per head, and from that down to $1 per head, according to quality. Stock Sheep may be quoted at from $1,50 to $2,50 per head. Lambs sold at from $1 to $3,50 per head.

HOGS.

There is little or nothing doing in this class of stock at these yards, as the demand is restricted almost entirely to supplying the immediate wants of the retail trade. We continue to quote at 7 to 7.50 per pound, gross, for fair to good averages.

THE SUPPLY OF PETROLEUM.

The Erie Dispatch, after a review of the situation, says the supply of petroleum is now 2000 barrels a day less than the demand, and that in thirty days the demand will exceed the supply 3000 barrels a day. The production of the oil region is about 5000 barrels per day.

New York Produce Market.

New York Dry Goods Market.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, September 10.—Dry goods are quite active and well maintained, except one or two brands of standard brown sheetings, which are ½c per yard lower, viz: Atlantic A Sheetings, reduced to 17½; do H, and Pacific A and H, which sell at 17; Lyman E, reduced to 17½, and Robt D to 14; Lawrence C, jobbing low at 16½, and Northfield Dublins at 12½. Flannels and Blankets have recently been reduced slightly in price, but other fabrics are generally firm and in active request. The cause of the decline in sheetings is owing somewhat to heaviness in the cotton market.

New Orleans Market.

AN ORDINANCE for the Grading, Paving and Curbing of ST. MARY'S AVENUE, LEECH STREET, CHARLOTTE STREET and SPRING ALLEY, in the Borough of Lawrenceville.

SECTION 1. Be it ordained and enacted by the Burgess and Town Council of the Borough of Lawrenceville, and it is hereby enacted by authority of the same, That the Street Committee be and they are hereby authorized and empowered to invite and receive proposals for the grading, paving and curbing of St. Mary's avenue, from the Pittsburgh and Greensburg turnpike road 135 feet, to Keller alley; Reed street, to Sycamore street; Charlotte street, from Allen street to Wainwright street; and for the grading and paving of Spring alley, from Sycamore street to Leech street, and to contract therefor with the lowest and best bidders, at their discretion.

SEC. 2. That the costs and expenses of grading said streets and alley shall be paid in the manner provided by an ordinance passed the 7th day of January, A. D. 1867, and for the purpose of defraying the costs and expenses of paving and curbing said streets and alley, there be and there is hereby levied a special tax, to be equally assessed on the several lots bounding and abutting on said street and alley, in proportion to the feet front thereon, and complied and bounding and abutting as aforesaid.

SEC. 3. That as soon as the costs and expenses of said improvements are fully ascertained by the Borough Regulator, it shall be his duty to assess and apportion the same among the several lot holders owning property on said streets and alley, according to the rule heretofore indicated, and thereupon to give notice thereof to the owner or owners of said lot or lots respectively, or to the occupant, agents or guardians of such owners, and make return of said assessments to the Treasurer of said borough.

SEC. 4. That it shall be the duty of the Treasurer on the return so made, to cause notice to be given to the several parties on whom assessments may be made as aforesaid, that unless the amount thereof is paid to him in thirty days after such notice, they will be proceeded against in the manner provided by law.

Ordained and enacted into a law this 9th day of September, A. D. 1867.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

THE BANKERS' AND MERCHANTS'

GRAND

Presentation Enterprise.

THE COMMITTEE APPOINTED

WILL POSITIVELY DISTRIBUTE THE PRIZES

AT THE

THIRD GRAND CONCERT

THAT WILL TAKE PLACE AT

IRVING HALL, NEW YORK.

Tuesday, Sep. 24, 1867.

BANKERS' AND MERCHANTS' SECOND GRAND CONCERT was given at IRVING HALL, August 24th. It was a grand success. The hall was filled with the most respectable citizens of New York. The committee that was appointed at the first Concert, announced to the audience that they would distribute the prizes at the next Concert, which will take place at IRVING HALL, on the 24th of September, 1867.

When the Committee made this announcement, the audience gave immense applause. They were pleased to know that the prizes would be distributed at the next Concert on the 24th.

This Grand Distribution of Prizes will be Conducted on the Mutual Benefit Principle.

A PRO RATA DISTRIBUTION OF PROFITS TO TICKET-HOLDERS!

Capital, - - $1,287,148.

TICKETS, ONE DOLLAR EACH,

And limited to One Million Two Hundred and Eighty-seven Thousand One Hundred & Forty-eight.

The Fairest and Most Impartial Plan of Presentation yet Offered to the Public.

A PRIZE WITH EVERY TICKET.

PROSPECTUS.

A number of the leading Bankers and Merchants of New York, in consideration of the great success which has attended many of the Charitable Presentation Entertainments of the day, have formed themselves into a company, with the view of inaugurating an enterprise which while it will return them a fair profit, shall offer greater advantages to ticket purchasers than any yet presented; and which being conducted upon a perfectly legitimate business basis, shall be free from those objectionable features which have characterized many of these enterprises.

To this end they have consigned the sale of tickets and the conducting of the same to Clark, Webster & Co., Agents and Managers, No. 62 Broadway, New York, who will keep the record in their custody until the day of the Grand Presentation Entertainment, when they will be handed over to a Committee selected by the audience to make an impartial distribution of prizes.

In reference to the number of presents and the general plan of distribution, given below, will convince even the most sceptical of the great advantages which will accrue to all who participate. The high commercial and Financial standing of the Company, and the Managers and Bankers thereof, will, they hope, prove sufficient guaranty of the fairness and impartiality with which everything in connection with it will be conducted, and that the interests of ticket holders will be most strictly watched over and guarded. In fact, it is the desire of the Managers to conduct every transaction for a ticket, and subsequently to avoid any and everything which could in the slightest degree diminish the profits which are likely to accrue to all who invest.
